2 MEN DIE IN TRAFFIC MISHAPS

County Death Toll For Year Climbs To 19

GI Victim Of Route 14 Collision; Grafton Man Killed On Rt. 30

Two persons are dead and four others are injured as the result of three district traffic accidents investigated by State Highway Patrolmen Wednesday and early this morning.

The deaths brought Columbiana County's traffic toll for the year to date to 19 killed. The corresponding toll last year at this time was 10 killed.

Goes Over Embankment

James W. Fitzwater, 23, of Grafton, W. Va., was dead on arrival at the East Liverpool City Hospital after he lost control of his car at 3:50 a.m. today on Route 30, eight miles north of East Liverpool, causing it to roll down a hill.

Death was attributed to a fractured skull.

A passenger in the auto, James Davisson, 23, of Cleveland is in fair condition today at the hospital, suffering from a possible skull fracture and multiple lacerations.

The auto was badly damaged.

The other fatal mishap occurred at 4:50 a.m. today on Route 14, approximately six miles east of Columbiana.

Hits Rear Of Truck

Patrolmen said that a car driven by Pvt. William L. Cromer, 26, of RD 4, Hartford City, Ind., a Signal Corp soldier enroute home on furlough from Fort Monmouth, N.J., crashed into the rear of a truck-trailer operated by John A. Adams, 25, of Wilkinsburg, Pa.

Both vehicles were traveling west at the time of the accident.

Cromer sustained internal injuries and was brought to the Salem City Hospital where he died at 6:05 a.m. His wife, Marilyn, 20, suffered abrassions of the elbows and shock. She was treated at the hospital and released.

The front end of the Cromer car was demolished.

The body of the victim was taken to the Stark Memorial pending funeral arrangements. His parents were informed of the tragedy and were to arrive here today.

Two Salem men were injured at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday on Route 30, seven miles south of Lisbon, when a car driven south on the highway by Hobert P. Weise, 23, of 157 W. Pershing St. crashed into the rear of another southbound auto operated by John A. Brown, 42, of East Liverpool.

Weise sustained abrasions of the arms and hips and a passenger in his car, Vahe Yaylian, 36, of 191 W. Pershing St. suffered lacerations of the back and abrasions of both arms.

The men were taken to East Liverpool City Hospital where Weise is reported in fair condition today. Yaylian was treated and released.

C. of C. Seeks Fire Alarms Downtown

A campaign seeking the approval of Salem merchants for the installation of five fire alarm boxes at the main intersections of the business district was begun Tuesday morning by the Chamber of Commerce, Janet Leyman, acting secretary of the Chamber, said today.

The project, endorsed by the Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber, involves the raising of $1,000, the cost of installing the boxes, by contributions from the city's merchants.

The Chamber hopes to receive enough support from the business establishments to enable the project to be completed with individual donations of $10 or less. Approximately 30 merchants already have approved the plan.

Installation of the fire alarm boxes is expected to contribute greatly to placing Salem in a lower classification in regards to fire insurance rates.

Bailey Named At Columbiana

Succeeds Richmond As Superintendent

COLUMBIANA—Homer F. (Gus) Richmond, 47, who has been superintendent of the Columbiana schools since the fall of 1946, announced his resignation at a special meeting of the board of education Wednesday night.

Mr. Richmond resigned to accept the position of high school principal at Alliance, succeeding Warren M. Davis, who was named assistant superintendent.

D. W. Bailey, who became principal of the high school at the time Mr. Richmond assumed the superintendency, was offered and accepted the post of superintendent here.

Mr. Richmond entertained members of the board at a supper Wednesday night at Heck's restaurant and it was in that connection his resignation was announced.

He came to Columbiana from New Waterford, where he was supervising principal, and previously taught at Hubbard and Grant City, Mo., his birthplace.

A graduate of State Teachers College at Marysville, Mo., in 1931, he completed work for his master's degree in school administration at Ohio State University in 1938.

Mr. Bailey, 42, was previously at Mineral Ridge School, where he was a teacher six years and a principal five, and prior to that taught at Darby Rural High School in Union County, near Columbus, for three years.

He received his bachelor of science degree in 1933 from Ohio State University, where he also was awarded his master's degree in 1941.

He and his wife reside at 405 Fairfield Ave. They have three sons, 17, 14 and 9 years of age.

In addition to the high school principal vacancy in the Columbiana schools, three other vacancies—in the primary, home economics and mathematics departments—remain to be filled.

Pull 9 Robberies, 2 Youth Fined $125

HANOVERTON — Two Hanover Township youths were arrested Wednesday night by Constable Roy Painter on charges of nine different robberies.

The youths were fined $125 and costs by Justice of the Peace Clyde Knestrick.

The robberies occurred recently in five different places throughout the area—New Garden, Bayard, Minerva, Hanoverton and Guilford. Constable Painter said that 50 to 60 items have been recovered.

White House, Industry Move To End Steel Strike Awaited

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Philip Murray, president of the striking CIO United Steelworkers, waited today for the White House or industry to take some step toward breaking the paralyzing 46-day-old dispute.

There has been no visible effort on either side to reach a settlement in the economy - strangling strike since Monday when negotiations arranged by presidential Assistant John R. Steelman ended in deadlock.

A maze of rumors sprang up around the country about possible secret settlement of the strike that has idled more than a million and one half workers, but Murray brushed them all aside with:

"They are without foundation," or "that simply isn't so."

Iron Age Magazine, a trade journal, said Murray's rejection of the industry's compromise offer at the last peace talks did not meet with approval of his union lieutenants. But union officials said Iron Age's report is without foundation.

The issue of a union shop, which would require all workers to join the union, or some modified form of it appeared to be the big stumbling block in the path of a settlement.

Murray wants compulsory membership, but the industry is holding out for union membership on a voluntary basis only.

Murray said he has contacted no one in government or industry in the past 24 hours, adding:

"The situation remains as it has been. I know of no plans for any further negotiating sessions."

Murray has called the steelworkers 170- man Wage Policy Committee to meet in Pittsburgh Monday. That committee makes all major union decisions.

Murray said he will report on the strike and ask the group to map a course of future action.

Meanwhile the longest strike in steel history drifts along in its seventh week. It is costing the nation about 40 million dollars a day in lost wages and steel production alone.

Korean Vets Get GI Bill

Truman Signs Law Granting Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman has signed a bill to help G. I.'s released since the start of the Korean War to re-establish themselves in civilian life.

The benefits are much the same as those granted to veterans after World War II, but there are some important differences.

The act provides the new veterans with money for education and training, mustering out pay, unemployment payments of $26 a week up to a total of 26 weeks, and financial support for home and business loans.

The bill was one of 37 Truman signed yesterday while in Walter Reed Hospital for a checkup.

The program is expected to cost about one billion dollars a year. The number of eligible veterans on May 31 was 870,000 and the total is growing daily.

To be eligible, a veteran discharged after June 27, 1950, must have served 90 days or more. The discharge must be other than dishonorable.

The biggest change from the World War II G. I. Bill is in the method of handling payments and in the type of schools veterans may attend. Congress wrote these in as a means of avoiding abuses under the earlier program.

Instead of making payments to the schools for the veteran, the government will provide the veteran with funds to pay his own tuition fee, buy books and handle his living expenses.

The ex-G. I. can go part time or full time to any school on a list approved by the V. A. or state agencies.

For each day of military service, a veteran is entitled to 1½ days of education up to a maximum of 36 months.

Payments range for full-time students from $110 a month if a veteran has no dependents, to $135 if he has one dependent and to $160 if he has more than one dependent.

A veteran who chooses on-the-job training will receive $70 month if he has no dependents, $85 if one dependent and $105 if more than one dependent.

House or business loans are under the same regulations as for World War II veterans.

The act provides mustering-out pay for all services below the rank of major or lieutenant commander on the following scale:

For 60 days active duty and service outside the U. S. or in Alaska, $300; 60 days active duty within the U. S., $200; less than 60 days, $100.

County Dems Don Coonskin Caps For Convention Trip

Headed by Congressman Wayne L. Hays, Ohio manager for Sen. Estes Kefauver's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination, and Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Democratic chairman for Columbiana County, the county delegation to the Chicago convention next week will leave the Erie station in Youngstown at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Members of the delegation will wear their coonskin caps and will stage a rally at the station.

The delegation will include Attorney Guy Mauro of Salem, Kefauver delegate from the 18th district, and his alternate, James Gibson of Leetonia; John R. Kelton of Hanoverton, chairman of the Young Democrats of Columbiana county; Charles Lewis of Lisbon, Columbiana county vice chairman, and Mrs. Marie Krim of Martins Ferry, district honorary second choice for president.

The delegation will be joined Monday in Chicago by Attorney Paul Tobin of East Liverpool, city Democratic chairman, and Ray Lewis, president of the Lisbon Young Democrats. Chicago headquarters of the delegation will be the Palmer House.

Columbiana County Chairman Gosney was the first county chairman in the U. S. to declare for Kefauver when he came out for the Tennessee senator last January.

Truman Demands Full Democratic Backing Of "Fair Deal" Creed

CHICAGO (AP) — President Truman's fighting declaration against any convention "betrayal" of his political creed paced a new trend among Democratic presidential aspirants today.

Without any apparent advance knowledge of Truman's blunt demand for endorsement of his "Fair Deal" program, at least two candidates moved to put themselves in a position—if they get the nomination—to lead a fight against what they called "Republican reaction."

Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, plagued by his designation as the anti-Truman candidate of the south, bid for northern labor and "Fair Deal" support with a denunciation of the Taft-Hartley law he helped enact.

Raps Isolation

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, self-tabbed peoples' choice for the nomination, called for a fight on what he labeled "Republican isolationism and reaction."

Their declarations seemed to indicate a developing pattern of thinking among the presidential hopefuls that the Republicans' choice of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will force the Democrats to pick a nominee who can call himself a progressive.

In words that paralleled Truman's official message to the convention delegates, Kefauver told a news conference yesterday:

"Must Be Liberal"

"The Democratic party must continue to be the liberal, progressive party of the nation. We cannot retreat on either foreign policy or in the domestic field."

Kefauver leads in the Associated Press delegate tabulation with 256 votes to 120½ for Russell, based on pledges of support and known first - ballot preferences. Mutual Security Director Averell Harriman, an all-out supporter of Truman policies, is running third with 112 votes. It takes 616 to win.

Truman said in his message, to be printed in the official convention program handed to everyone of the 1,576 delegates, that no other political party has "done so much, so well, for so many people." He declared:

"There must be no turning back or faltering on the great course our party has pioneered. There must be no betrayal of the New Deal and Fair Deal."

Also Seeks Crusade

Matching the call of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the GOP presidential nominee, for a "shining promise" crusade by the Republicans, Truman sounded the bugle notes

Parade Opens New Waterford Celebration

Forty Floats, Bands March; Town Observes Its 100th Anniversary

"The best parade seen in this part of the country" was the general description the two-mile long parade Wednesday highlighting the first evening of the four-day 100th anniversary celebration of the founding of New Waterford. Several hundred people winessed the evening's performance.

Included in the parade were more than 40 floats, bands and drum corps. Oldtime vehicles, manned by people in appropriate costume, were followed by modern farm equipment and cars.

First prize for the best marching band went to the Beaver Falls aggregation and the second award to the Salineville High School band. The Rochester Drum Corp won first in that division with the Navy Bells of Steubenville, second.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coppock of New Waterford were dressed to match the era of the buggy in which they rode. The wild game float of L. T. Williams of New Waterford was adjudged the best and Mrs. Ruth Ray had the best covered wagon.

"Oldtimers" riding in the parade were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jamison, now of Canton, Thomas Mercer Sr. of Columbiana, Delmar Dyke and Mrs. E. Mochert of New Waterford.

Representing the oldest industry in the village was William Filer who rode a float representing his barber shop which he has been operating since 1901. Tom Pike and his son were dressed in original Daniel Boone costumes. Also in the line of paraders was an authentic 1890 covered wagon drawn by oxen. The oldest car was a 1908 model driven by Rudy Blosser.

Movies were taken to commemorate the event and they will be shown soon in various outdoor thaters of the district.

Concluding the Wednesday evening celebration was a concert by the Beaver Falls band.

Nightly shows are being presented by "The Silhouettes," aerial artists, in addition to concerts by the Fairmount Children's Home band, Beaver Falls band and East Palestine Legion band. The festival ends Saturday night.

Fire-fighting equipment to be paraded through the village at 7:30 p.m. Friday will include equipment from miles around.

Prizes will be awarded.

The village, which is located on Big Bull Creek, was incorporated by John and Robert Silliman in 1851. George Cornell was the first postmaster. A carriage factory was established by John Ott in 1877.

District Girl Hurt In Softball Game

Martha Jane Butch, 15, of North Georgetown, daughter of Jutsice of the Peace Felix Butch of Lisbon and Mrs. Lucille Butch of North Georgetown, suffered a possible fractured back while playing for North Georgetown against the Amvets in the City Girls League at West End Park about 9:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Martha slid into home plate, hit the Amvet catcher, who went into the air and landed on Martha's back. Martha, a catcher herself, is reported in "fairly good condition" at the Central Clinic.

Man Admits Campus Killing Over Thesis

BOSTON (AP)—Police Capt. Francis Wilson said a 29-year-old Back Bay man who said he "wanted to kill someone" because an educational society refused to accept his thesis Wednesday night confessed orally to the shooting of pretty Eileen Fahey of New York on the Columbia University campus.

Miss Fahey, 20, a bookkeeper for the American Physical Society, was shot to death Monday morning while sitting at her office desk reading a letter from her boy friend in Korea.

Wilson said Bayard Peaks, a Boston meat - packing plant employe, told him he went to New York "to kill someone" in the society because the group had refused to accept a scientific paper he wrote on a theory of life.

The paper was entitled "Applied Electronics to Medicine With the Aim to Prolong Life."

Peaks is a former Northwestern University student.

Wilson said Peaks told him he fired three shots at Miss Fahey when she confronted him as he entered the society's office at Columbia University.

He told police Miss Fahey said to him, "You're just standing there," as she crumpled to the floor.

Peaks told Wilson he then reloaded the .22 automatic pistol, fired three more shots at Miss Fahey and fled.

TREASURE TROVE—The whisper of a dying spinster has sent her cousins on a treasure-hunt through a litter-filled house in Detroit, Mich. Miss Emma Schuknecht, 76, whispered to her cousin, Mrs. Tillie Stotz, "If anything happens to me, look in the closet—all my papers are there." A search through the house has uncovered, so far, more than $250,000 in cash and securities. 1,230 MPH Flight Felt Same As 750 MPH, Pilot Declares

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The hottest plane in the free world, the D558-2 Skyrocket, holds a new speed record of 1,238 miles an hour, says the navy.

And the hottest test pilot, lanky Bill Bridgeman, says zooming at that speed is "no different than flying 750 miles per hour."

The real kick comes, Bridgeman said in an exclusive interview last night, when the rocket-propelled hummingbird runs out of power at a record altitude of 79,494 feet and swoops down 15 miles for a deadstick landing on the desert.

Marks Confirmed

Both the speed and altitude marks were confirmed here by Secretary of the Navy Dan A. Kimball. Bridgeman flew the Douglas-built rocket ship to unprecedented heights last Aug. 7 and set the speed record Aug. 15 in tests at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

The Navy previously had admitted only that the research plane had "climbed at 1,000 miles an hour."

In all, Bridgeman made six rocket flights last summer. The Skyrocket was launched each time at 35,000 feet from a B29 mother ship.

Rams Sonic Barrier

Each time, the 35-year-old Douglas test pilot said, the needle-nosed 40-foot ship rammed smoothly through the sonic barrier—which is reached at about 660 miles an hour at 35,000 feet and above. In pressurized suit and cockpit, Bridgeman says he was "not especially conscious of speed.'

'You notice the high speed only when you make a mistake," the ex-Navy bomber pilot said. "Then she really jumps and gets hard to control. Generally, though, there's too much blue sky and so many things to do that the speed isn't noticeable."

The record speed was made in level flight after the Skyrocket had reached the apex of her climb. It was measured by instruments in the plane and radar ground readings carefully checked by the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics.

The moment that sends "your guts into your shoes," Bridgeman declares, comes when the last of the four rockets used by the plane loses its thrust.

"Then you have to bend 'er over fast, level off and start gliding for home."

Truman Spends 'Good Night'

Hospitalization May End By Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman spent a "very good night" at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital, aides said today. They reported Truman expects to get back to the White House by Saturday.

The 68-year-old President entered the hospital Wednesday, marking the first time he was hospitlaized since he took office more than seven years ago. He is undergoing a series of tests as a result of a mild virus infection with which he was afflicted Sunday.

Joseph Short, the President's press secretary, said Truman is keeping busy going over the great number of bills passed in the closing days of Congress and still requiring his signature. He has about 50 bills to go.

Mrs. Truman arrived in Washington this morning.

No appointments were set up for the President today. This seems to rule out any possibility he will confer today with Thomas J. Gavin of Kansas City, the man who will cast Truman's ballot at the Democratic national convention next week.

Short said he sees no prospect of any personal get-together between Truman and Gavin.

Short said Truman's physician, Maj. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, expects the President's temperature "may go up a teeny little bit" again this afternoon, as it has been doing since Sunday. Truman had no fever this morning.

And, Short added:

'The President expects to be back in the White House by Saturday."

Short emphasized again the President went to the hospital not because of his illness but to facilitate running the medical tests Dr. Graham wanted to make.

Electrc Furnace Wins $10,000 Court Suit

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Electric Furnace Co. of Salem won a $10,000 federal court judgement Wednesday covering its loss from a furnace explosion at Harrison, N. J., in 1948.

A furnace the firm installed in a Crucible Steel Co. plant exploded in a test run. The Salem company took the loss and sued to recover it under an insurance policy with the Fire Association of Philadelphia.

The insurance company maintained that under the sales agreement Crucible owned the furnace at the time of the explosion.

Judge Charles J. McNamee ruled the furnace still was the property of the manufacturer and was covered by the policy.

Young Republicans Endorse Eisenhower

The Columbiana County Young Republican Club has gone on record as the first Ohio club to endorse General Eisenhower for the presidency.

Meeting Wednesday night at its Wellsville headquarters, it voted unanimously for the endorsement and followed it up with an invitation to the Republican nominee to address the residents of Columbiana County at a place and time suitable to him.

John Springer, chairman of the social committee, said that an ox roast was being planned for late summer as part of the membership drive which begins Aug. 1.

As principal speakers, State Representative Delmar T. O'Hara, Dr. William McGarey, president of the club, and William Southan, member of the East Liverpool City Council, presented a description of behind-the-scenes events at the Republican national convention.

Strong Civil Rights Plank, Enforcement Urged To Dems

CHICAGO (AP) — Union labor and Negro leaders called today on Democratic platform drafters for assurances that civil rights pledges will be carried out, once they are written.

Advocates of a civil rights plank "at least as strong" as that in the 1948 Democratic platform complained to newsmen that the party had not made good on its promises of four years ago.

James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO, said, "We're not going to be satisfied with a promise like we got from the 1948 convention — we want performance."

A renewal of the red-hot scrap between Northern and Southern Democrats on the civil rights issue is shaping up.

But it is too early to tell whether feeling will mount as high as it did at the Philadelphia convention in 1948 when many Southern delegates walked out of the convention, later forming the States Rights party.

The Dixie contingent this year is hopeful of achieving a compromise — something short of the federal fair employment practices commission (FEPC) with enforcement powers recommended in the '48 platform.

Besides the FEPC, the Northern group wants party pledges for federal laws outlawing lynching, banning state poll taxes and racial segregation.

Walter White, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Roy L. Reuther, political action co-ordinator for the CIO United Auto Workers, and Stanley Gewirtz, executive committee chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action, carried the ball for the civil rights proponents before the 21-member Democratic platform drafting group today.

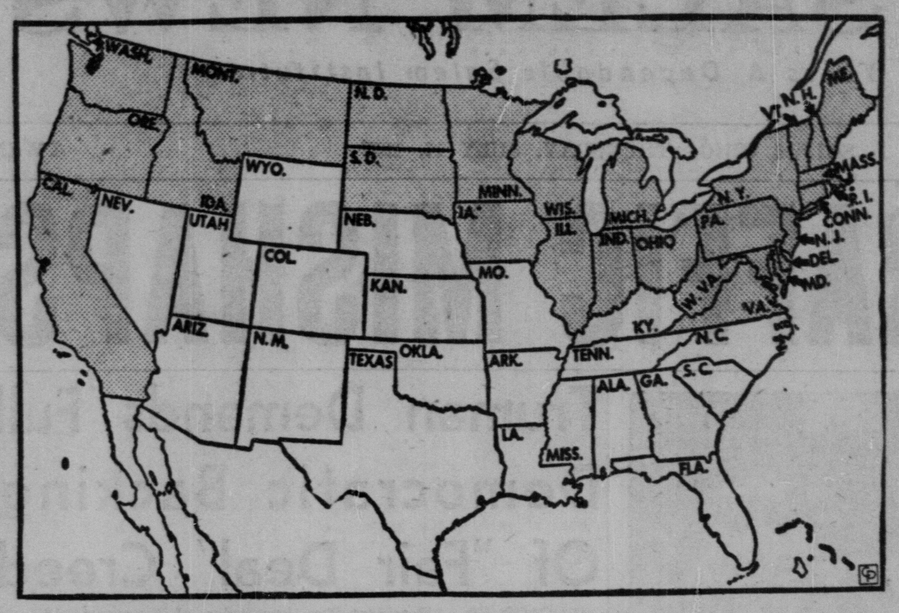
Reuther's prepared statement stressed the demand that the party platform contain a pledge to change U. S. Senate rules so that filibusters against civil rights or other legislation could be shut off by a simple majority vote. Two thirds of the Senate membership now must approve such a debate limitation.

Unless the rules change is made, Reuther said, "all the fine words about the good, the true and the beautiful in the fields of human and civil rights will be just so much pious political flypaper to attract votes."

Gewirtz told the platform drafters that civil rights advocates were tired of "too much lip service and not enough fulfillment."

Leades of the two national farm organizations asked the platform writers yesterday to disown the price support policies of President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

Allan B. Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and Herschel Newsom, master of the National Grange, said the Truman administration banks too much on artificial and restrictive measures in seeking to make agriculture prosperous.



SHADED STATES are those in which a 24-hour skywatch is underway by the Civil Defense organization against a possible Communist air attack. More than 150,000 volunteers are operating the round-the-clock watch from 9,000 observation posts keyed to 32 filter stations. Civil Defense needs call for personnel of 500,000. Currently the volunteers must work many hours "overtime," say Civil Defense officials.

Adoption Case Jury Is Discharged

LISBON—After deliberating over three hours, a Juvenile Court jury was dismissed by Judge Louis Tobin Wednesday at noon when they failed to reach a decision in the trial of a Columbiana couple accused of neglecting and abandoning one of their seven children.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hartman of East Palestine filed the charges against Mr. and Mrs. William Pittman of Columbiana, parents of the 4-year-old girl, in the case which opened Monday.

But at a conference yesterday afternoon among the parties involved, counsel for both sides and juvenile officials and the Pittmans agreed to let the Hartmans adopt the child. They also agreed to the same thing involving a 7-year-old daughter.

The oldest daughter had been placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nell of the Peace Valley-Negley Rd. at about the same time the other daughter was placd with the Hartmans, about three years ago.

Nells had also filed criminal actions against the parents while both the Nells and Hartmans have filed applications for adoption of the youngsters.

Judge Tobin said an agreement was reached whereby the children will decide for themselves which home they wish to reside at when they reach 14.

Government Studies Aluminum Price Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today studied an Aluminum Co. of America request for price boosts of at least 10 per cent which, if granted, would mean higher prices for hundreds of household products.

The Office of Price Stabilization announced Wednesday the firm said it needed the hike to meet increased materials and possibly higher labor costs.

Alcoa indicated the price increases should be considered on an industry-wide basis, OPS said in announcing the request would be turned over to an industry advisory committee. Other chief producers of aluminum are the Reynolds and Kaiser companies.

Furnace Rd. Detour To Be Inspected

LISBON—County Commissioners will again inspect the proposed Furnace Rd. detour Friday as residents and businessmen on Route 30 continue to fight to have the route adopted as the permanent detour when work starts on the Canton Bridge.

State Highway Department officials have announced their detour will send passenger traffic over Route 164 to Gavers, Route 518 to Millport, and return to Route 30 at Kensington.

Residents and businessmen objected and urge an alternate detour along the Logtown Rd., the Furnace Rd. and back to Route 30 via the Lisbon-Guilford Rd. Merchants along Route 30 west of Lisbon said they will be hurt because work on the bridge is expected to last over a year.

Gen. Dean Taken To New Prison

Reds Transfer U.N. POWs From Capital

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—The Communists today said they have moved their prize captive, U. S. Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, from a prisoner of war camp at the bomb-shattered capital of Pyongyang to another camp in North Korea but did not give his new location.

The disclosure came in an exchange of letters by liaison officers of the United Nations Command and Communist truce teams at Panmunjom.

The Red letter told of a large-scale prisoner transfer involving Dean, former commander of the U. S. 24th Infantry Division, and numerous Korean captives.

The Allied communication demanded an accounting of 1,881 missing U.N. soldiers believed in Communist stockades. The U.N. Command said it has been making the request since December with "totally unsatisfactory" results.

The Allies at the same time answered a similar request from the Communists for an accounting of 1,014 Allied-held prisoners with information on all but four the captives.

Dean is a Medal of Honor winner from Berkeley, Calif. He was captured in August, 1950.

The Reds announced his transfer in notifying the U.N. that they had abolished three prisoner of war camps and set up six new ones. Four of the new ones are at or near Pyongyang, target of a destructive Allied air raid last week.

The disclosure came during the fourth day of a Communist-called recess in secret armistice negotiations at Panmunjom over the deadlocked issue of prisoner exchange. The five-man truct delegations are scheduled to reconvene at 11 a.m. tomorrow (9 p.m. Thursday, EST).

2nd Leg Of Atlantic 'Copter Flight Begun

PRESQUE ISLE, Me. (AP) — Two helicopters took off today for Goose Bay, Labrador, on the second leg of a flight the Air Force hopes will be the first Transatlantic jaunt by "flying windmills."

The craft were both airborne in good weather at 6:10 a. m. EST, and aided by a light tail wind, expect to make the 570-mile Labrador hop in about eight and a half hours, according to Maj. Albion T. Sawyer, liaison officer traveling aboard a C-54 cargo plane which will escort the 'copters on the flight to Wiesbaden, Germany.

The flight started Wednesday from Westover Air Force Base, Mass.

Johnson of Colorado posts a portrait of his favorite candidate, Senator Richard Russell, on the wall of Russell's Democratic party headquarters in Chicago. Johnson predicted that Russell would have about 300 votes on the first ballot and win the nomination on the sixth to tenth ballot.

Young Aliens Affected By Change In Law

Clerk of Courts John W. Coleman has been advised by the Immigration & Naturalization Service that after Dec. 24 aliens who have reached their 18th birthday will not have to file a declaration of intention to become a citizen.

Previously an alien had to file intention papers and then wait a period of time before filing first papers. An alien may still file intention papers if he so desires.

Essential To Life, Salt Has Ill Effects

In some parts of the world salt—that is the kind that makes up ordinary table salt—is in short supply, and is considered very valuable indeed. This is for the simple reason that salt, or sodium chloride, is necessary to maintain life.

Dr. Jordan

The salt is kept in a constant proportion in the blood and tissues by a wonderful system of balance and the amount of salt present in food or added in cooking or on the table is usually just about enough to make up for that which is lost.

More sodium chloride is lost from the body than is taken in, when there is heavy perspiration for a prolonged period of time. This occurs in certain industrial occupations, in hot weather and when there is heavy physical exertion.

Salt tablets or the addition of small amounts of sodium chloride to the drinking water may be used to replace an excessive loss of sodium chloride of this type. In some industries workers are encouraged to take a salt tablet with each drink of water, though this should not be done by those who have certain kinds of diseases.

In certain diseases the amount of salt taken into the body has to be limited. Too much salt either has a bad effect on the diseased organs or holds an excessive amount of water in the tissues of the body, thus causing the accumulation of fluid in the legs or abdomen.

Under such circumstances, the excess salt is not eliminated normally but stays in the tissues. In order to maintain a constant balance between the sodium chloride and water in the tissues, excess water is also retained.

For this reason, the physician may reduce the salt in the diet of persons with certain kinds of heart disease, kidney disease or diseases of the blood vessels. There are some other conditions, like Addison's disease, in which the use of sodium chloride has to be strictly regulated.

A great deal of table salt now has a little iodine mixed in. This iodized salt has done a great deal to reduce the frequency of goiter, and extensive studies have not revealed any harmful effects. Truly, the importance of salt to human beings cannot be exaggerated.

"A Very Great American"

When Dwight Eisenhower announced in the first moment of his convention victory last week that he was going across the street to pay his respects to Sen. Taft, "A very great American," he spoke for many of us.

We lacked the privilege of paying our respects directly, but we, too, wanted to show how we felt about Bob Taft.

We wanted to say what was in our hearts about a man who had openly sought the Republican nomination, who thought it was worth fighting for, who put himself on view before millions of his countrymen, answered every question asked of him and fought harder for his cause than any individual in our times—yet could lose gracefully in what he knew would have to be his last contest.

The political circumstances which denied Sen. Taft the role that many of us thought he deserved at the climax of his public career cannot deny him a role that no convention can bestow.

Bob and Martha Taft, by the circumstances of their living—their devotion to each other and to the principles which have guided them—are of that distinguished group which the many of us recognize gratefully as first citizens of our republic. They are the examples which sustain us and give us hope.

They do not need to occupy the White House to hold that distinction; the Tafts did not need to be in the White House to win it. They won it by setting a shining example of Americanism at its best in a field of attention where critics and besmirchers are savage and ruthless.

As history's perspective lengthens, true proportions emarge from the shadows of vaguely remembered events. We think it will be plainer then than it is now that Robert A. Taft was one of the men of great stature who was passed over in the search for Presidents—passed over not because he was unworthy but because the searchers became preoccupied with lesser matters.

Bite Test For The Coalition

It is about to be revealed that the coalition which formed on the foundation of the Democratic party after 1932 is capable of feeling just as strong as those between contesting elements of the Republican party.

The two main bodies of strength in the coalition were labor unionists and the machine voters of key cities in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Missouri. During the New Deal and Fair Deal, these parts of the coalition were so strong they overwhelmed the old-line Democratic strongholds in the South.

They cheerfully drove the South into the anti-administration camp, thereby making the camp so strong that it has virtually controlled Congress since 1937. But this is an arrangement of convenience, not a coalition. It was certain that the southerners were only waiting for the day when they could regain control of the Democratic party.

It is significant in this respect that Sen. Russell of Georgia is claiming in behalf of his candidacy for the party's presidential nomination that only he could keep the Solid South's electoral vote intact. This claim has weight because the instant it became evident to the politicians of the labor movement that they could not swing another national election, if they ever really did swing one, they would desert the coalition. That would pull the props from under the big-city bosses, and the coalition would collapse. There would be nothing left but the base—the old-line Democratic party represented by Sen. Russell.

The bite test for any coalition is the prospect of losing. It is the prospect which the delegates to the Democratic convention will have first and foremost in their minds next week, when they stage their quadrennial struggle for control of their party.

13 Million Tons Of Trouble

If the steel strike had not tied up the ore fleet, more than 34 million tons of raw material for the steel industry would have money down the lakes by this time.

As it is, about 21 million tons have been brought down. That 13 million ton deficit, plus what may be added to it as the steel strike continues, will make trouble next winter when the ore fleet is frozen in. No steel can be made without iron.

The steel industry can make up some of its production losses, but it cannot make up this wholly useless loss of iron ore. Enough must be taken out of the ore fields during the shipping season to meet current needs and create a winter stockpile.

Perhaps Harry Truman didn't understand this when he refused to use the Taft-Hartley Act to keep the steel industry in operation this summer while a new contract was being negotiated.

Philip Murray, president of United Steelworkers of America understands it, however, and is being urged by spokesmen for the industry to let the iron miners go back to work. This is one time when it's no use to write your congressman, but it might be useful to write your union president.

The Next President

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Economic Conditions To Affect Voting

Dwight Eisenhower has no better than an even chance to be elected president of the United States next November.

Those enthusiasts who, in the flush of excitement over his signal victory in Chicago, have assumed that the Republican nominee is as good as elected are making the mistake of assuming that personal popularity and the anti-administration views on public questions held by the new candidate are all that is required to win.

The truth is the election may be decided on economic conditions in America in November, 1952 — on the reaction of the individual voter to his own personal well-being in relationship to a change in or continuance of the administration in power.

When 50,000,000 persons vote, the largest percentage of them are primarily influenced by "good times" or "bad times" and the prospect of one or the other in the next four years. Television, radio, the press, personal campaigning and the hard work of political organizations all have their influence but, in the absence of any overriding issue, the economic factor of contentment or discontent is paramount

ONE SUCH overriding factor this time may be the issue of war or peace. The present administration is vulnerable. It has foundered on foreign policy and has become involved in a war in Korea that it should have ended long ago. Will continued floundering bring on a large-scale war? There is room for debate on that point but, unless the people clearly understood those emotional issues, the factor of economic contentment would remain controlling.

Another overriding factor may be the issue of corruption. Up to now it has not been dramatized from a political standpoint. The meaning of the sins committed in Washington has not been clearly established to the voters. Lack of integrity in the national government can be a prevailing factor in losing the election for the party in power no matter what the economic conditions.

Another factor which could help the Republicans immensely would be for President Truman to stick to his "whistle stop" plan and go campaigning. If the nation gets the idea that Mr. Truman will run the next administration and that he chose the party's candidate, it will make votes for the Republican Party.

The President has always had an inflated notion that he personally won the 1948 election and that he did it by campaigning. Actually he was dragged into victory by the Democratic Party, which was much stronger than he was, as can be proved by examining the final totals in various states. In Illinois for example, Governor Stevenson won by about 570,000 votes and Truman squeezed in by about 30,000, and in Ohio the margin was even wider between the Truman vote and that of Governor Lausche.

THE DEMOCRATIC party was then and still may be the majority party, and whoever the Democratic presidential nominee is—other then Truman, of course—he will start with a big lead over any Republican due to the rank-and-file strength of the Democratic Party.

From the standpoint of electoral votes, the Democratic party cannot possibly win the election without the South. This means that, if the Trumanites insist on commiting suicide at Chicago by a civil rights plank such as Senator Humphrey faisted on them in 1948, they might as well begin calling Dwight Eisenhower "president" the day after the Democratic National Convention adjourns. For, no matter how much economic contentment there is in the North, it takes 266 electoral votes to win, and without the southern states this time the Democrats can't win. This indicates the need for a compromise on the issue.

THAT'S THE reason why Senator Russell is such a strong contender. A Stevenson-Russell ticket would have a better than even chance of winning.

Governor Stevenson has said he would accept a "genuine draft." But if the nomination is to be worth anything to him or anyone else, the South will have to be placated and won over wholeheartedly to the ticket. The extremists in the Democratic leadership are still talking "no compromise" and if they prevail, it's all over, because the South won't cooperate and Eisenhower may carry such states as Texas, Virginia, North Carolina and Florida to swell his total in the north.

Republicans Divided

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Somewhere in last week's sea of oratory, in which the memory of most of us is still swimming, there was mention of Lincoln's adaptation of the scriptural line about the house against itself. In fact, that may have been the most significant line spoken all week because it was so true.

The illusion is, however, a gross understatement because it implies a division into only two parts. The Republican party is a house in which many divisions run in all directions, crossing and recrossing each other in an infinite variety of forms and shapes.

Unless there can be found some simple common cause such as a need for a change, this house so terrifically divided cannot stand.

The schism over foreign policy is the better known of these divisions. That one stems from several sources, however. There is, of course, propinquity. The eastern seaboard is closest to Europe. In both World Wars, before the United States became a participant, one could feel keenly the impact of conflict in New York, but in Columbus or Indianapolis it was something remote.

Another root cause of division is financial. This one I never appreciated until in 1932 and 1933 I was given some authority by Roosevelt to deal with the debts owed to the United States by various European countries. My own positions on the subject of canceling these debts ran close to that of Coolidge: "They hired the money, didn't they?" I suddenly found that forces emanating from Wall Street —and I mean Wall Street—were exercising powerful influence to drive a wedge between me and the boss.

Inspired stories appeared in print about my isolationism. I was, in fact, only trying not necessarily to collect, but to keep the debts alive as a reminder to us not to lend too soon again. But so long as the debts stood, the European market for international bankers was cramped, and they wanted desperately to resume a very profitable trade.

The tariff has perennially been a dividing line. Here again, eastern financial interests have wanted to lower tariffs, but certain major industries and large segments of agriculture have always demanded protection.

The Far West looks to Asia; the East views Asia as a region east of Europe.

In the field of domestic policy there are dozens of differences. Gov. Dewey, with his eyes on New York City, is strong for civil rights legislation. Some candidates for President, with their eyes on Southern delegates, have taken a similar position. Old-time Republicans, with their eyes on the past, want their party to stick to the force bills of the 1870's. Border-state Republicans would ease up the drive for federal legislation. Meanwhile, the Republican party in the South remains a withered limb.

Most important is the division, which will dangerously imperil the party chances this year, between those who want a "hard-hitting campaign" and those who would go half-way to the Fair Deal. This division tortured Dewey in both of his campaigns. His advisers clashed, but he ended by accepting the soft course and thereby lost the election.

If in the face of all these divisions we can have a Republican victory this year, it will be because of the overwhelming demand of the people for a change. But it will take strenuous efforts to win on that issue alone.

Uncle Ef Says

From the newspaper headlines you'd think that Taft and Eisenhower were campaigning for election as president right now instead of for the Republican Party Nomination. Nobody'd better forget there are several million men and women who will vote in November against either one of them.

Convention Reform

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

There are those who enjoy chasing after events as though everything in life were a three-alarm fire. The Republican convention, to me, was an irritant because I saw 2,412 Americans, delegate and alternate, regimented into a noisy mass. The same will happen at the Democratic convention.

George E. Sokolsky

Television has made you a witness to this unsavory situation. You witnessed the demonstration, all but one of which were professionally organized and directed. The extra help was hired. The only exception was the spontaneous expression of respect for Herbert Hoover. And of all things, that one was started by Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, who, while not agreeing with Hoover in ideas, has the breeding that impels him to do the decorous act.

Television has already outmoded the convention. Those who watched on television saw more than anyone could have in the convention hall. Do you remember that New York delegation being polled, with Dewey ordering people around, his face tense? Only those who watched on television could see that in all its ferocity.

THE OBJECT of the direct primaries was to limit the power of the party boss. It has not worked out that way in either party. Actually, the party boss is as strong as he ever was. This is partly due to the apathy of the people and partly to the huge cost of politics. It is estimated that pre-convention and convention activities cost the Republicans of all factions between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000. This is an absurdly high figure. It puts the presidency up for sale.

Only one method is available for saving the convention and restoring self-respect for the delegates. That is to institute a secret ballot, using voting machines. Under the rules, delegates vote by states. Under some of the laws governing primaries, delegates pledged to a candidate must vote for him for a varying number of ballots. In such circumstances the secret ballot loses some of its effectiveness, since the delegates are already pledged to a candidate.

The primary laws are so varied that they become an additional element of confusion. What is necessary is some uniformity in the primaries, but this seems difficult, if not impossible, because election laws are passed by state legislators for their own states. There is no federal election law, except as corrupt practices appear or are charged in the election of federal officials.

Thus, it is possible to have 48 varieties of primaries, and it is amazing how ingenious the human mind can be in devising instruments of confusion.

NEVERTHELESS, if the delegates knew that at each convention their votes would be secret: That each delegate had to vote for himself: That no other person could vote in his name—the delegate might face this responsibility with more dignity and a greater sense of usefulness. A man must feel futile and frustrated when he is voted like a Hitler youth.

The secret ballot and the voting machine will not make all men pure, but they will somewhat lessen, and perhaps appreciably, the power of the boss. State contests have little to do with purity: They are generally over who is to be accepted as the local party boss. That is always the issue: It is true in both parties. The party boss, in support or opposition, rarely stands for principle: He associates himself with the candidate other than the one who recognized his adversary. This is as old as the convention itself.

I DEFY ANYONE to know who actually voted in a yes or no, in Viva Voice vote the delegates or the balconies. I personally watched the balconies shout, yes or no, some of them shouting both times. No presiding officer can truthfully say which way the delegates vote unless a delegation is polled.

Without a secret ballot with voting machines, the balconies may decide the issue. That may be what is nowadays called democracy: It comes closer to mob rule. You saw on television pin-point portraits of the balconies: You must have wondered how some of those persons got in at all. Yet, they could yell as loud as a delegate.

What is said here is not in criticism of Taft or Eisenhower or the Republicans. It applies to all parties and all candidates.

Gadget-Crazy

By TRUMAN-TWILL

Some years ago, when one of our auto makers bid for customers with a new automatic transmission, the bid was queered by including an auxiliary gearshift with the car's equipment.

The blunt confession of doubt disturbed potential buyers of cars with the new gadget attached. The very presence in the driver's zone of the stub of the old-fashioned gearshift lever was upsetting, though the manufacturer was trying to add to the owner's margin of security.

No such concessions to owners are being made any more. They take the new gadgets to make their struggle-buggies struggle along automatically on faith. And if anything goes wrong, they have no more idea than a rabbit how to fix it, or what it might be.

Even more serious, even the most skillful auto mechanics—the ones who have kept pace with the rage for automatic transmissions —admit when the chips are down that the best they can do is conduct an exploratory operation of indefinite duration, at so much an hour. This can get to be a pretty high price for relief from the old-fashioned chore of shifting gears.

A short time ago, the United States finally got its hands on one of those Russian jet planes which have been sobering American designers and pilots with their speed and range in Korea. They learned a significant reason for the performance.

The Russians were flying circles around U.S. jets because they had got rid of a lot of deadweight in the form of gadgets which added nothing to the battle performance of their planes. U.S. planes, on the other hand, had been loaded up so heavily with equipment to take responsibility off the men who flew them that they were being shot out of the skies in alarming numbers.

This preoccupation with gadgets is not peculiar to airplane designers. It has been a standing joke that the American foot soldier is so loaded down with stuff to make his drab life easier to bear that the only way he can save his life is to throw most of it in the ditch lest he break his back trying to carry it.

This gadget craziness has outdistanced the ability of the American people to deal with the consequences. The owner of a modern car is lucky if he knows how to raise the hood; he wouldn't think of trying to fix anything.

Things added to things already satisfactory always are justified by the story that they represent improvements. Sometimes they do. But sometimes they represent nothing but the urge of a gadget manufacturer to make a better living for the wife and kiddies.

Twice in recent months we have heard about owners of cars with fancy automatic transmissions being stranded a long way from home over a weekend while distraught local mechanics allowed as to how they might be able to fix the danged things once they learned what was wrong, which might take a day, maybe two, maybe three.

So They Say

A family only truly begins with three children. Thereafter....majority rule becomes at once possible —Archbishop of Canterbury, father of six sons.

What do advertisers say about (the American girl) on the radio, on television? She suffers from dandruff, from body odor, from halitosis.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Democrats, Take Heed!

Convention oratory has either gone away back or it never was what it was cracked up to be. Video has demonstrated this. Television makes a good speech seem fair and a bad speech seem stinko.

Only the Lincolns can survive the pitiless third degree under which television puts the orator. And Abe's Gettysburg speech could be taken today as a model for the right length. The mere windbags, pompous voice throwers and "than whom" boys are murdered by video. The video cameras make the smallest phoney note or gesture into a feature production.

There is in all but the greatest speakers a touch of ham, and it has been effective through the years. Radio made it more recognizable. Video makes it a spectacle. The false note, the "baloney balonus" touch and the insincere tones are magnified on the living-room screens. Before anything in the oratorical pattern of the old days has been in the room for more than a half-dozen sentences there seems to be a line running across the screen "Strictly for the birds!" The day of the sonorous ramblings, the rolling phrases and the general cheese caking of utterances are over.

THE SILVER-TONGUED orator is not the answer to the video audience's craving for fireside diversion. Anything short of a brilliant speech suffers when served on a live telecast. A speech can be hard on the ears and be endurable, or it may be hard on the eyes and be endurable, but it can't be hard on both and be even forgiven.

Nominating and seconding speeches must of necessity be well seasoned with bunk and oil of sassafras, but on television nothing but brevity can keep them from showing. The shouters and wild gesticulators seems like tivals for spots as summer replacements for Berle or Martin & Lewis. Democrats, take heed!

We understand the Democrats will warn every delegate that he will get tossed out if he yawns, sleeps or reads a magazine during the telecast of a talk on noble purposes and high ideals. A sour taste is left when the homefolks look at a convention and see a "stalwart servant of the people" ignoring an impassioned address on world problems in order to study a racing chart.

—:—

THE REPUBLICANS have put youth into the campaign by nominating Senator Nixon, and we hear the Democrats will counter by naming Johnnie Ray for vice president. . . . Ike says he will penetrate every nook and cranny. . . . (The nooks won't be hard, but oh those crannies!) . . . They say that if Truman had known the Republicans could name a ticket like that he would have seized the convention. . . . Art Summerfield, new GOP chief, is a Flint auto dealer. . . . He was named because he knows the party faces more than a repaint job. . . . He believes the place for the Truman vehicle is in a museum for antique autos. . . . And his job will be to get Uncle Sam to turn in the old Democratic gas-eating speedster for the new Ike-Nix Eight. . . . Eisenhower and Taft have both gone fishing, but they will get no rest. . . . Gavels will still ring in their ears and, as each fish is reeled in, they will hear it cry "I demand the delegation be polled!" "The gentleman is out of order," and "The clerk will call the roll!"

Shudda Haddim, the well-known turf addict, says that Taft popped an osselet.

Republicans hold the best line pulled by anybody at the recent GOP convention was by Katherine St. George when she said of the Democrats "Never have so few taken so many for so much."

Ike Eisenhower's early ambition was to be a pro baseball player. He is now concentrating on the job of seeing that no Democrat gets to first base.

Elmer Twitchell says he has left the video for the convention season in order to take a much-needed vacation at a national conference of Ear Plug Manufacturers.

Foreign Aid Reshuffle Seen

More Money May Be Asked Of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—A reshuffle of slashed foreign aid funds and a possible new appeal to the next Congress for more money were forecast today by administration officials.

Congress cut President Truman's foreign military and economic aid request by 25 per cent, to $6,031,947,750. In signing the appropriation bill Tuesday, the President termed the slash "the falsest kind of economy" because of the effect he said it would have on defense plans of the Western Allies.

Tackling the job of scaling down previous estimates, officials said these were among the steps under consideration:

1. Shifting part of the $3,128,224,750 earmarked for military aid to Eruope to "defense support" — Economic assistance — of hard-pressed Britain. Last year the British received 350 million dollars. About 596 million was budgeted for the 1953 fiscal year beginning July 1. The legislation permits such a transfer of up to 10 per cent within the total European allotment.

2. An appeal to the next Congress for a deficiency appropriation to increase Point Four aid to South Asia, particularly India. Congress cut the South Asia total by 60 per cent to 67 million dollars. The result is that only about 44 million dollars will be left for India, compared with last year's 50 million. The administration had requested 118 million for fiscal 1953 largely with the aim of bolstering Prime Minister Nehru's regime against communism.

Suit Asks Halt To Phone Company Rate Increase

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The Millersburg Chamber of Commerce today asked that a $429,117 rate increase sought by the Central Ohio Telephone Corp. be held up until the company improves its service in Holmes County.

In a letter to the state utilities commission, the chamber said present local and long distance service to Holmes County subscribers is not satisfactory. The letter said the company had been asked many times to improve its service without success.

The company also serves sections of Knox, Morrow, Marion, Crawford, Wayne, Delaware, Licking, Muskingum, Coshocton, Portage, Mahoning, Columbiana, Warren, Fayette and Madison Counties.

CIO, Company Sign Working Agreement

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. (AP)—The CIO United Steelworkers announced today they had signed a working agreement with the MacIntosh-Hemphill Co. at nearby Midland, Pa.

Charles Flaim, president of CIO-USA Local 1269, said the agreement was not a new contract. The contract, he said, would depend on what the union works out with big steel firms.

Neither Flaim nor the company would give any details about the agreement. Flaim said the company would start calling back its 300 employes on Monday.

MacIntosh-Hemphill is a foundry and steel fabricating firm.

Greenford

Bible study and prayer service was held at the Locust Grove Baptist Church last evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Warren G. Zinn and three children from Indiana have moved to the new Baptist parsonage south of Greenford. He delivered his first sermon July 6 at the Locust Grove Baptist Church

The King's Daughters Class of the Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. James Dickson Monday evening. Mrs. Fred Puttkamer led devotionals and Mrs. Ray Hendricks had charge of the entertainment. At the August meeting the class will entertain families and friends of the class at a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Ray Hendricks.

The Locust Grove festival will be Saturday evening, July 26, and the Greenford Firemen's Festival Saturday evening, Aug. 2.

Carol Ann Puttkamer accompanied Kathryn Groves of Salem to a Methodist Camp school near Carrollton for a week's camping.

Miss Phyllis Feicht underwent a tonsilectomy at the Salem Clinic Tuesday.

The Youth of the Locust Grove Baptist Church held a picnic and vesper service at Firestone Park last Sunday. The feature of the day was recreation, a picnic supper, a vesper service with Rufus McDorman, home on furlough, as the devotional leader and the new pastor as speaker. The evening was concluded with a campfire song service and wiener roast.

Mine Safety Bill Gets Reluctant Truman Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman has signed a bill that permits the government to close coal mines it considers unsafe. But he says the measure isn't really strong enough to prevent disaster.

The President, in signing the measure yesterday, said it was a significant step toward ending "the appalling toll of death and injury to miners." But he said Congress eventually will have to enact more adequate legislation.

Moose Auxiliary Members Hold Chapter Night Program

Mrs. Levern Owen, chairman, held her officers' chapter night program and initiation of the Moose Auxiliary Wednesday evening at the Moose Temple.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Earl Yeager and Mrs. Donald Johnston. Lunch was served by the social committee, with Miss Rose Mowery as chairman and Mrs. Hazel McClish assisting.

It was decided that the yearly picnic will be held at Dunn-Eden Lake at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 13. Mrs. Owen is chairman of the coverdish dinner. Families and friends of members are invited.

The August social committee is comprised of Mrs. Yaeger, Mrs. Ernest Bruderly, Mrs. Lloyd Firth and Mrs. Floyd Woodworth.

The delegates to the Moose convention in Chicago, Aug. 17-20 are Mrs. William Pahanish, senior regent, and Mrs. Johnston, recorder. Alternates will be Miss Mowery and Mrs. Owen. The group will also visit Moosehart, Ill.

The flower committee for next year and the territories assigned: Mrs. Fred Weizenecker, Beloit; Mrs. Owen, rural; Miss Mowery, Leetonia, and Mrs. Johnston, of Salem.

The relief investigating committee for next year is comprised of Mrs. Lorenzo Ingledue, Miss Mowery, Mrs. Weizenecker and Mrs. Yeager.

The next regular meeting will be 8 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 6, at the Moose Temple.

Couple Is Honored By Perry Grangers

Master of Perry Grange, Earl Shasteen, and Mrs. Shasteen were honored by grangers Wednesday evening in celebration of their 35th wedding anniversary which was on that date. All the members joined in a musical tribute to the Shasteens.

The couple have five sons, Ross, Earl Jr., Glenn, Robert, Jerry and several grandchildren.

Mrs. Juanita Swartz is lecturer of the grange. In charge of the program was Mrs. Lewis Duke, Youth Committee Chairman.

Glenda Shasteen played two accordion solos, Sandra King gave an original reading, "Wishing." A trio composed of Mrs. Perce King, Mrs. Virgil Whinnery and Sandra King sang "Kentucky Babe."

Poems were read by James Campbell and Betty Jo Hawkins George McCartney recited "Egg Opening."

The Youth group presented a square dance, with Virgil Whinnery calling.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Chet Cope, social chairman, and her committee.

Meetings coming up include tonight when the group visits Pleasant Valley Grange to stage a program, the annual grange picnic to be held in Pavilion 1, Firestone Park, Columbiana, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 23, with Mrs. Cope as hostess; the family party to be held Saturday, July 26, at the grange; and the regular meeting Aug. 6.

Miss Joan Rae DeWan Becomes Bride Of A-1c Richard Borton

Airman First Class Richard Borton and his bride, the former Joan Rae DeWan, leave tonight for Texas where the airman is stationed at Bryan Air Force Base at Bryan.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeWan of S. Union Ave. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Borton of S. Broadway were married at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the sanctuary of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. Rev. George D. Keister, church pastor, heard the exchange of vows in the single-ring service.

Miss Ruth Hoch, organist, played the nuptial prelude and heralded the wedding party with the traditional marches. As the couple knelt during the cermony, she played "The Lord's Prayer." Two bouquets of white gladioli and asters were used at the altar lighted by tall tapers in seven-branch candelabra festooned with white satin bows.

Wears Lace and Nylon

When Mr. DeWan escorted his daughter to the altar, she was gowned in chantilly lace and nylon marquisette. The lace of the bodice was styled with a pointed collar and covered buttons to the waist were trimming. Ballerina in length, the skirt was fully fashioned of nylon marquisette. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a beaded tiara, and a corsage of American Beauty roses complemented her costume.

Mrs. Robert Boyce, the groom's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a large white picture hat and a corsage of red roses with her black and white street-length dress.

Mr. Boyce served his brother-in-law as best man. Fred Tetlow, the bride's brother-in-law, and her brother, Jack DeWan, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. DeWan chose pink transparent nylon with white accessories and a corsage of deep pink roses. Mrs. Borton appeared in blue sheer nylon with white accessories and a deep pink carnation corsage.

The newlyweds greeted more than 50 guests at the reception in the Borton home of S. Broadway. The flower setting on the refreshment table included carnations, asters and sweetpeas. A three-tiered cake was served to the guests from Salem, Alliance, Washingtonville and Columbiana. Serving were Mrs. Augusta Ibele and Mrs. Frank Candle.

The new Mrs. Borton graduated from Salem High School in 1950 and from the Western Union Telegraph School at Crawfordsville, Ind. Her husband attended Salem High School prior to entering the service. Two of his five years in the service have been spent on Okinawa.

The bride has left her position with the E. W. Bliss Co. to be with her husband in Texas. For traveling, Mrs. Borton wore a two-piece suit of navy blue faille, trimmed with red and white candy stripes with white accessories and her corsage of red roses.

Personal Notes

Miss Beverly Kay Loomis of Newton Falls is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Taylor of N. Union Ave.

TEXTURE, THAT ALL-IMPORTANT word in fabric, means that surface interest has become foremost in fashion. It also means that a basically simple design can gain new interest, since texture, in itself, is sufficiently eye-stopping.

This is demonstrated over and over again in simple, classic lines coupled with texture. But texture has other fashion uses. It lends, for instance, the look of one fabric to another. When a wrinkle-resistant finish is added, a new and practical fashion is born.

Linen-textured rayon (left) makes a dress that's just right for the cooler days of summer. It has a soft, smooth weave that's been made wrinkle-resistant. Angora trimming outlines the deep, wide U neck. Over this simple sheath goes a cape-sleeved, tassel-trimmed jacket that's not shown here.

Textured treebark taffeta (right) makes a simple acetate dress with wide, square-cut neckline and crisp white cuffs. It's the thousands of tiny, irregular pleats that lend this fabric body and give it surface interest.

Elks Auxiliary Has Social Event Tuesday

Despite the heat Tuesday, members of the Elks Auxiliary enjoyed a social evening in the Elks home. Prizes in the card games went to Mrs. Dean Barber, Mrs. Roland Zimmerman, Mrs. Robert Burton and Mrs. Harry Bush.

On the entertainment committee in charge of the card games were Mrs. Clarence Wooley, Mrs. Loyal Phillips and Mrs. Robert Knoedler. Lunch was served by Mrs. Leo Hickey, Mrs. Marcus Rice, Mrs. John Ehrhart Jr., Mrs. Elwood Calvin and Mrs. John Grubbs. The next meeting will be a business session Aug. 5.

BEGINS EVENING SERVICE

The first evening service at the Locust Grove Baptist Church will be inaugurated at 7:30 Sunday when Rev. Warren G. Zinn, new pastor, preaches,

Mrs. Ross Rupert and son, Barry, of Miami are vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Duncan of E. Fourth St.

4-H Club News

Silver Thimble

Members of the Silver Thimble 4-H Club met at the home of Audrey Votaw Tuesday evening and roll call was answered with a favorite song.

A square dance for members and guests was discussed but no date was set. Named to the committee were Rita Swartz, Karen Zeigler, Phyllis Milliken, Bonnie Kilbreath, Faye Gleckner and Janice Maxson.

Phyllis Milliken led in the devotional service. A demonstration was given by Martha Mary Milliken who told about how to store gladioli. A team demonstration on dress hems was presented by Audrey Votaw and Donna Fronk. Bonnie Kilbreath and Phyllis Milliken demonstrated child care. The next meeting will be July 25 at the home of the advisor, Sarah McArtor, on the Salem Grange Rd. Projects will be judged that night.

Good Luck

The backyard of the home of Miss Kay Hill was the scene of a wiener roast Monday when 18 members of the Good Luck 4-H Club met.

The group discussed projects divided into two groups—cooking and sewing. Demonstrations on cooking were given by Margaret Hawthorne, Ella McCartney and Kay Hill.

Roll call was answered by naming favorite cars. Ila and Velma Brinker will be hostesses to the group at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 23.

Camp Will Close

The Damascus Quarterly Meeting Junior Camp is being held in Quaker Canyon this week. Classes and services are being conducted in the Friends Church.

Rev. Sherman Brantingham of Winona is camp director and Rev. Milton Coleman, returned missionary from India, is camp evangelist. Others in the quarterly meeting are teachers and counselors. Parents and friends are invited to the closing exercises at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Four U.C.T Groups Will Have Picnic

Salem Council, United Commercial Travelers of America, will have a family picnic this year in conjunction with councils in Alliance, Youngstown and Warren, who will jointly sponsor a U.C.T. Kids Day at Idora Park from 2 to 10 p.m. Sunday.

Members, their families and guests are welcome. Invitations have been extended to all councils in northeastern Ohio to take part in this district event.

A registration center will be operated on the porch of the park office building by representatives from each of the four councils. Special tickets for all rides will be sold to members, identification badges will be distributed and tickets given out.

Free dancing will be provided from 3 until 5 p.m. to the music of Nick Bari and his orchestra in the ballroom. A basket picnic will be held at 6 p.m. in the Kiddie Park pavilion.

The local committee in charge of arrangements is headed by Senior Counselor Charles W. Knisley and his aides are Rex Hundertmarck, Ray Reich and Henry Schuster.

Groups Hold Picnics At Centennial Park

Having picnics at Centennial Park Monday was the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church. Tuesday, the Lions Club and Jessie Thomas Missionary Society of the Trinity Lutheran Church picnicked at the park.

Friends Missionary Society will gather today along with the Presbyterian Forum Club. American Laundry and Loyal Sons and Daughters will meet Friday.

Greenford High School Class of 1939 will attend Saturday. Zeigler reunion will be held Saturday, and the Coy, Wolford, Bell, and Andre-Miller reunions are scheduled for Sunday.

SOCIETY TO CONVENE

Emma Naffziger Women's Missionary Society of the Greenford Lutheran Church will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday, July 24, at the home of Mrs. Ralph S. Hendricks. Mrs. Edith Weikart will lead the devotions and Mrs. Mabel Dumbaugh will direct the meeting.

Teen-Timers Elect Officers At Meeting

Officers were elected when the Teen-Timers gathered at the home of Ann Stowe on Damascus Rd. Sunday evening.

Gretchen Bodendorfer was chosen president, Ann Sandrock, vice president, Miss Stowe, secretary-treasurer, and Rose Marie Crawford, bouncer.

Hostess at the July 29 meeting will be Marian Probst at her home on S. Lincoln Ave.

Presbyterian Director Serves At Workshop

Miss Grace Ellenberger, director of Christian education at the Presbyterian Church, has been serving this past week as instructor at a Bible workshop in Wooster.

Next week Miss Ellenberger, Mrs. Walter Hofmeister, director of the Haviland Choir, Mrs. Frank Huber, Carol Choir director, Miss Shirley Bell and Miss Mary Jane Bergman, will spend the week at the Wooster conference.

Mrs. Hofmeister and Mrs. Huber will attend choir school and the others leadership training classes.

Parking Meter Problem Studied

Meters May Operate Two Nights A Week

COLUMBIANA — Discussion of the parking meter situation by members of council Tuesday evening may result in two meter nights because some of the business places remain open Friday nights and close Saturday nights. Changing the meters from Saturday night to Friday night would involve considerable expense, and members of council inclined to favor a change embracing Friday night instead of eliminating Saturday night. There has also been some talk of the banks remaining open Friday nights.

Council accepted a petition of Stanton Ave. property owners for a grade for the improvement of the street with a seal coat from N. Main St. west to the west line of the property of Ralph Irons Sr., a distance of about 400 feet. Property owners on the rest of the street to a point outside the corporation line, about 400 feet more, having decided that they would like to be included in the improvement, will be instructed to present a petition for their part of the street.

A RESOLUTION was adopted to have on the November election ballot a proposal for the renewal of the small 1-mill levy for park maintnenance for another five years. The present levy will expire with the June tax payment in 1953. Members of council felt that the amount is so small for the individual taxpayer that the community should have the benefit.

No one appeared for the hearing on the budget, scheduled for Tuesday evening, and the figures submitted by Clerk S. Richard Orr were adopted.

Chief of Police R. G. Millen reported that the new two-way radio between the police cruiser and police headquarters is in operation. It proved its worth in the recent disaster at the Northeast Ohio Poultry association plant, when Patroman William McGuckin was able to reach the sheriff's office immediately and have the Columbiana and Leetonia fire departments and several ambulances quickly on the scene.

SINCE THE Y.&S. Railway has been using deisel power locomotives, the Herbster St., Pittsburgh St., Railroad St. and Duquesne St. crossings are without warning lights, of which the company will be informed with a request for the repair of the East Park Ave. crossing, where the blinker lights operate, and the Duquesne St. crossing.

Councilmen Herbert Souder and Walter Miller were appointed by Mayor W. A. Thomas to get bids for necessary painting of town buildings.

Mayor Thomas read an invitation from Mayor W. O. Henderson of Youngstown for Columbiana to send a representative to a meeting of the Ohio Municipal League in Youngstown, July 29. The mayor asked Solicitor John L. Hutson to attend.

Council President Miller will be acting mayor for a couple of weeks in the absence of Mayor Thomas, who left early Wednesday for Wisconsin, accompanied by Mrs Thomas.

Egg, Poultry Prices Climb

Fresh Vegetables Plentiful, Cheaper

By The Associated Press

Retail egg prices climbed sharply again this week. Frying chickens and several popular cuts of meat advanced a few cents a pound in many markets.

Food price reductions were confined largely to a handful of fresh fruits and vegetables and to shopping specials being promoted to attract customers .

Top grade eggs went up three to as much as 10 cents a dozen compared with last week. Dealers said heat waves in several important poultry sections had killed many laying hens, slowed production generally, and made it hard to maintain top egg quality in transit.

Egg prices have climbed 10 to 25 cents a dozen in the past three weeks in several major markets, and consumer price resistance was reported to be showing up.

Frying chickens were up four to seven cents a pound in many stores, reflecting increased demand and several lamb and pork cuts moved up one to four cents a pound. Most beef items were about unchanged. Spokesmen for three large store chains said smoked and cooked hams, small turkeys and legs or rumps of veal appeared to be among the better meat buys in most markets this week.

On the fresh produce counters, snap beans and beets were plentiful and lower-priced, and celery, broccoli, cabbage, lettuce and tomatoes were down a little compared with last week. Spinach, eggplant and peppers were in lighter supply and higher priced.

Canteloupes cost a little more as demand increased with the hot weather, but watermelons and honeydews moved a little lower. Also lower and plentiful: Grapes, cherries, plums, apricots and figs. Peaches were marked down a trifle but most of the supplies were still the early varieties and produce men said volume shipments of the popular Freestone yellow Elbertas were just beginning to reach the major markets.

Blueberries were abundant and in the reasonable price class. Raspberries were getting harder to find.

Lemons were a little lower but still relatively high-priced, and grapefruit and nectarines were up slightly.

Shipments of the season's first Bartlett pears from California were picking up, but prices were still at the specialty level.

Price controls on 90 per cent of processed (including frozen) fruits and vetetables were removed this week to conform to a congressional amendment to the economic controls extension bill.

Several food industry authorities said it was doubtful that prices of the decontrolled canned and frozen fruits and vegetables, and dried fruits, would be raised, since most are in good supply and are selling below the old ceilings.

One-Year-Old Skating Fan

TOPEKA, Kan. — One-year-old Charles E. Weber is off to a fast start—on a pair of roller skates. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Weber of Topeka.

The youngster began learning at nine months. Now he is a regular customer at a Topeka roller-skating rink.

Charles was putting on weight too fast. He jumped from nine pounds at birth to 38 pounds at seven months. So mother and doctor put him on skates. Now he is a solid little athlete of 28 pounds.

Red Dean Again Charges U.S. With Germ Warfare

LONDON (AP)—The "Red" Dean of Canterbury, defying official criticism of his pro-Communist activities, last night repeated his charges the U.S. airmen waged germ warfare in Korea.

Speaking at a meeting of the Britain-China Friendship Association, Dr. Hewlett Johnson declared that during his recent trip to Peiping he had seen evidence of such warfare with his own eyes.

Lost 30 Lbs.
Health Improved

Mrs. C. Ullman, 87 Erie St., Rittman, Ohio writes: "Before taking Rennel I was not only overweight, but I had trouble with gas, burning of the stomach and bloating. Since I started to take Rennel I have lost 30 lbs. and I can eat just about everything. I no longer have that bloating or stomach trouble. Also the swelling of my limbs which I had before has disappeared, so I know this was caused by my carrying so much weight around, I would recommend Rennel to anyone who is overweight, because you can lose weight, and you do not have to go hungry to do it."

Thousands have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. Obtain liquid Rennel at your drug store, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic with the very first bottle, just return it to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment reducing with Rennel.

Yankees Rock Cleveland; Capture Doubleheader, 8-7, 7-4

New York Moves 4½ Games Out

Garcia, Gromek Face Reynolds, Raschi

NEW YORK (AP)—With the score 2-1 in favor of the home team, New York's Yankees and the Cleveland Indians squared off today for two more chapters in their marathon series.

Showing they didn't like the tail twisting they received from the Tribesmen Tuesday, the Yanks reacted violently Wednesday to twice down the visitors, 8-7 in 10 innings and 7-4.

But although the double defeat dropped Cleveland to 4½ games behind the front - running Yanks, Manager Al Lopez said he still believed his club would win the pennant.

"All I want to do is to stay on the heels of the Yankees until September," Lopez said. "If we can do that we will have a good chance of catching them."

For today's twi-night doubleheader Mike Garcia (13-6) will oppose Allie Reynolds (11-4) in the opener and Steve Gromek (4-3) will tangle with Vic Raschi (9-2) in the nightcap.

The first battle Wednesday, a ding-dong contest all the way, saw Bob Lemon relieved after six innings because of the 90 - degree temperature and Lou Brissie charged with the defeat.

A 10th-inning single by Hank Bauer pushed over rookie Kal Segrist for the winning tally after an uphill struggle by the world champions. Garcia, who followed Brissie to the mound, gave up the game-ending marker.

The Yanks gained a 3-0 lead in the second inning on four hits, including pitcher Johnny Sain's double, but the Tribe came back in the next frame to push over five runs.

Lemon poked his second homer of the season to bring in Merrill Combs who had singled. A single by Harry Simpson, a double by Bobby Avila and a triple by Dale Mitchell scored the other three runs and sent Sain to the showers.

After one-run innings gave each team two more runs, the Yanks tied it up 7-7 in the eighth when Yogi Berra homered with Phil Rizzuto on base. The count remained knotted until Bauer's blast in the 10th.

In the second game, New York jumped into the lead in the third inning and was never behind. The Tribesmen did manage to knot the count at 3-3 in the seventh when they scored two runs.

Three straight singles by Joe Tipton, Combs and Bob Feller produced one tally. Combs scored the other as Mitchell forced Simpson with the bases loaded.

The Yanks came back with four runs in their half of the inning, however, and except for Larry Doby's one-run homer for the Indians in the eighth, that ended the scoring.

Dub Jones Signs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Dub Jones signed his fifth pro football contract with the Cleveland Browns today.

Called the best halfback in the game by Coach Paul Brown, Jones tied the pro football scoring record last season in a game against the Chicago Bears. He ran over six touchdowns that day.

Grudge Battle Slated

Bliss, Amvets Play Friday Night

The Bliss and Amvets of the Class AA League will engage in a grudge battle at 9:30 Friday night at Kelley Park to decide which team will face the All-Stars of the Class AA League next Thursday evening.

Each team has lost two games in league play but the Bliss has nine victories while the Amvets have eight, leaving the Bliss with a higher percentage. However, the Bliss had a game with the Amvets postponed during the second round of play and the Amvets protested when it was announced that Bliss should face the remainder of the Class AA All-Stars.

Thus, the game is slated for Friday night when both teams will be gunning for a victory. Should the Bliss come out on top, they will play the All-Stars but if the Amvets win they shall have to play Gil and Chucks in all fairness to the Bliss, since the Amvets haven't faced Gil and Chucks yet in the second round. If the Amvets would beat Bliss and lose to Gil and Chucks, the two teams would be tied for first place and a toss of the coin would decide which team will encounter the All-Stars.

64 Qualifiers Play In Ohio Amateur Golf Tourney; Jones, Carmichael Rated Favorites

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The classy defending champion who does everything left-handed except play golf, and Carmichael were installed as co-favorites to take the laurels—but the field was filled with semi-favorites and dark horses capable of sending both to the sidelines.

The 64 talented simon pures emerged Wednesday from the 36-hole medal play qualifying test, whittling the entry list from 169. Today's first round matches will cut it to 32.

Double rounds are scheduled Friday and Saturday, with the 36-hole finals Sunday over Columbus Country Club's 6761-yard par 72 plant.

Danny Carmichael, 32 - year - old Naval flying ace from Columbus, led the qualifiers with a 71-72—143, clipping a stroke off par and nosing out Frank Guarasci, Ohio State sophomore and former caddie, by a stroke for the medal.

At 145 in third place were Dr. John Lorms, son of the host pro and 1945 national intercollegiate king, and bowling star Steve Nagy of Cleveland.

Tom Jones of Youngstown, the defending champion who does everything left-handed except play golf, and Carmichael were installed as co-favorites to take the laurels—but the field was filled with semi-favorites and dark horses capable of sending both to the sidelines.

Jones, who qualified automatically, meets youthful Danny Dell of Xavier University in the first round, the Cincinnati sharpshooter getting in with a 152 score. Carmichael tangles with public linkster Jerry Nemeth of Dayton, another 152 qualifier.

Jack Zimmerman, former state public links champ from Dayton, meets A. I. Davey Jr., Cleveland editor who led the first round of the qualifier, in another top-flight encounter. Other interesting pairings send Cleveland's Ed Preisler, former amateur champ, against Carl Wiseman, Mansfield aspirant, and Byron Hunt of Columbus, former publinks champ who is now a private clubber, against Dick Guthrie, Ohio University star from Athens.

North Georgetown, Red Caps, Homeworth Win Softball Tilts

The Red Caps, Homeworth, and North Georgetown recorded victories last night in Girls League play at Kelley Park as they topped Columbiana, Kate's Kottage of Beloit and the Amvets, respectively.

The games put Homeworth and North Georgetown ahead of the Democratic Club in the standings of the loop, the latter with a 6-2 record while the other two teams hold 7-2 records.

The Red Caps scored their third victory of the season as they downed the Columbiana nine, 6-5. The game, an extra inning affair, saw the winners tie the score at 5-all in the seventh inning and then force another tally across in the eighth inning.

The Red Caps totaled ten hits during the game while Columbiana managed nine bingles. Three Columbiana errors also contributed to the Red Caps victory.

—o—

THE SECOND GAME of the evening saw Homeworth win a tight 6-5 game from Kate's Kottage. The tilt saw each team rally for four-run innings, Homeworth's coming in the opening inning while the Kottage nine got theirs in the fifth frame to make the game close.

The game was tied when the teams entered the sixth and Homeworth came through with a run to take the lead. Again in the seventh, Homeworth scored and the Kottage team also tallied in the bottom of the seventh but couldn't rally for the tying marker.

—o—

NORTH GEORGETOWN had an easy time with the Amvets, whipping the latter outfit by an 11-3 score.

The Georgetowners tallied six runs in the fourth inning to cut the game to five innings. They managed seven hits and yielded just three markers to the Amvets.

However, the North Georgetown team lost its catcher in their big fourth inning rally. Martha Butch slid home and collided with the Amvet catcher and had to be taken from the game. She is reported in fairly good condition today in the Central Clinic with a back injury.

Junior Tournament Semi-Finals Slated

CHICAGO (AP)—One of the three favorites is destined to be derailed in today's semi-finals of the Women's Western Junior golf tourney.

Since the teenager tourney started at Lake Shore Country Club in suburban Glencoe Monday, the title fight had been expected to center among Berridge Long, 15-year-old West Virginia State women's champion from Huntington, W. Va., Cincinnati's Janet McIntosh, a pert drum majorette, and Barbara McIntire, gifted Toledoan.

In the upper-bracket semi-final, Miss Long squares off against Miss McIntosh. The winner presumably will meet Miss McIntire in Friday's championship match. Barbara from Ohio today was favored over 17-year-old Nadyne Granick, Wisconsin junior state title-holder.

Miss McIntosh, Wednesday polished off Holly Roth, 15, Milwaukee, 7 and 6. Miss Long ousted Joan Roll of Chicago, 5 and 3. Miss McIntire bounced out Babs Blakely, Anniston, Ala., 4 and 3. Miss Granick moved into the semis with a 7 and 6 locking of Cincinnati's Judy Anderson.

Babe Ruth hit 50 or more home runs in four seasons—1920, '21, '27 and '28. That is a record that stands today.

Ed Stewart, outfielder for the Chicago White Sox, graduated from UCLA with a bachelor of education degree.

Merchants Beat Boardman, 2-0

Win Non-Loop Tilt From Athletic Club

Don Miller hurled shutout ball last night in a non-league game against the Boardman Athletic Club for the Salem Merchants at Centennial Park when he yielded just five hits while his teammates collected six bingles and won, 2-0.

A seven-inning affair, the game was tight all the way. The locals pushed a run across in the initial inning when Claire Weingart singled after Bob Miller had received a base on balls. Weingart's blow got past the centerfielder and Miller rolled home all the way from first.

The teams went scoreless during the next four innings but Salem again broke through for a tally in the last of the sixth inning. Hits by Kirby and Jim Laughlin brought home a run.

Boardman attempted to score in the sixth period but a ground ball to Bob Miller was fielded and tossed home, catching a Boardman runner at the plate. Catcher Chuck Marks received a rocking as he tagged the runner but managed to hang onto the ball for the putout.

The Merchants will face East Palestine at the park Sunday when they get back into Columbiana County League action. The Bulldog City nine is presently in third place in the league.

Davey Battered But Wins 10-Round Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Undefeated Chuck Davey's bid for a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight crown today was still intact but blood-smeared and due for a two-month shelving.

Davey took a brutal beating about both eyes Wednesday night despite an unanimous 10 - round "revenge" decision over rugged Carmen Basilio, a real tough guy from Canastota, N. Y., at the Chicago Stadium.

The two had fought a disputed draw at Syracuse, N. Y., May 29, Davey at first ruled the loser.

This time, the 26-year-old Davey, who holds a master's degree in education from Michigan State, gave a boxing lesson most of the way to Basilio, a lad with a high school education.

But when it was over, the former NCAA champion, looked like he had been caught in a dark alley by an accurate bat-wielder.

Davey admitted he started too fast, attempting for a knockout. "I ran out of gas in the middle of the fight, that's all," said Davey, who scored his 34th victory in 36 professional bouts without defeat.

Claire Doran Big Favorite In Tourney

CLEVELAND (AP)—Slender Claire Doran, the Curtis Cup player who operates with machine-like precision, took over the top favorite role today as semifinal play opened in the State Women's golf championship.

The Lakewood School teacher and 1950 tournament winner was even par on each of the 14 holes it took her Wednesday to eliminate Mrs. Don Pifer of Sylvania, 5 and 4.

Opposing Miss Doran in today's 18-hole round is Miss Robert Palmer, the Columbus titlist, who defeated Mrs. Allen Georgenson of Mansfield, 3 and 2.

In the other bout, Bonnie Randolph of Columbus meets defending champion Carol Diringer of Tiffin.

Mrs. Stanley Emerson of Dayton was elected president of the Ohio Women's Golf Association, and Dayton was picked for the 1953 tournament.

Karl B. Zellers

Former Louisville Coach To Teach Here

The newest addition to Salem High School's faculty and possible member of the athletic coaching staff is Karl B. Zellers, former coach at Louisville High School during the past year.

The appointment was announced today by Supt. of Schols E. S. Kerr. Zellers will be employed as a geography teacher.

The Mount Union College graduate of 1949 has an athletic background and may be added to the school's athletic staff. Kerr said.

Zellers received his master's degree from Kent State University in 1951. He was on the coaching staff at Berlin Center High School following his graduation but moved to Louisville last year to become head football and track coach.

Jim Piersall Continues Showoff Antics

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Jim Piersall in Boston last week told Joe Cronin of the Red Sox: "I will stick strictly to baseball" while he remained farmed out — probation like—to Birmingham of the Southern Association

Wednesday night, however, the one-time showboat of the majors who is now the showboat of the minors, lost whatever control he had on his behaviour and he didn't stick strictly to baseball.

He squirted home plate with a water pistol in the middle of a game with Atlanta. The squirt was a neat followup after imitating the umpire during a game in New Orleans last week. Also, while that game was going on Piersall played catch with the kid who runs the New Orleans scoreboard.

Since Boston demoted the showboat for his antics he has been kicked out of four games. His expulsion during Atlanta's 2-1 victory Wednesday night came soon after watering the plate, when he argued over a strikeout.

Yankees Widen League Lead; Boston Nears Second Place

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankee Stadium, graveyard of Cleveland pennant drives in the past, is haunting the Indians again.

Cleveland startled the baseball world by winning its first three games in the home of the New York Yankees this year. This almost matched their victory total for the previous two seasons during which they managed to win only five of 17 games in the house that Ruth built.

But Cleveland's dreams of a happy hunting ground in the stadium were rudely shattered Wednesday. The Indians missed an opportunity to virtually tie the Yanks for first place by dropping both ends of a doubleheader, 8-7 in 10 innings and 7-4. They now are 4½ games behind.

The defeats also endangered Cleveland's grip on second place as the third place Boston Red Sox defeated the Chicago White Sox, 7-3, to move to within a half game of the Tribe.

Lefty Mel Parnell scattered nine Chicago hits as he coasted to his seventh victory.

Southpaw Bill Wight pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 9-0 victory over Washington. Wight held the Senators to four hits while his mates collected 14. Walt Dropo collected two hits in four trips giving him a record of 15 hits in his last 18 trips. A twi-night doubleheader between Philadelphia and St. Louis was rained out.

Brooklyn maintained its five game lead in the National League, downing Cincinnati, 5-3, while the runner-up New York Giants eked out an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 10 innings. In other games, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh, 8-7, and Chicago tripped Boston, 3-2 in 13 innings.

GAMES SLATED TODAY

Two three-inning games by the North Lima, New Springfield, New Middletown and Poland teams of Mahoning County Baseball league are scheduled for Firestone Park at 6 p.m. today.

Brundage Is Named I.O.C President

HELSINKI (AP) — A thorough shakeup in the entire Olympic program was forecast today to make sure everybody taking part is a simon-pure amateur.

The move would be a logical step in view of the elevation Wednesday of Avery Brundage of Chicago to the presidency of the International Olympic Committee.

The I. O. C. runs the Olympic program.

Brundage is the world's leading advocate of amateur sports. He has fought the inroads of professionalism at every occasion without regard to his personal popularity.

He will take ove. his new, unpaid job on Sept. 1. For the present Olympic games the executive will be the aging J. Sigfrid Edstrom of Sweden, who has headed the organization since the war years.

Wednesday's competition continued on the athletic fields in field hockey and soccer.

The United States was bounced out of the soccer qualifying competition in a one-sided battle with Italy 8-0.

Two surprises were the defeats of Great Britain, home of soccer, and Chile. The British lost, 5-3, to Luxembourg and Chile was edged by Egypt, 5-4. Brazil defeated Holland, 5-1.

In field hockey Germany defeated Poland, 7-2, and France beat Ifaly, 5-0.

Pueblo's Dodgers Steal Home 3 Straight Times

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Pueblo's Dodgers stole seven bases, including what is believed to be a record setting three consecutive thefts of home, in the first inning of a Western League game with Omaha Wednesday night.

Pueblo won the game 13-11.

Friends may call Friday evening at the funeral home.

Democrats

of a "burning faith" crusade by the Democrats.

"There will be voices calling us to turn aside from the path to victory," the President said. "We cannot afford to be beguiled by the weary or the fainthearted.

'Our answer must be that we will not compromise with the forces of defeatism, or reaction, or fear — that we will not retreat from the great humanitarian principles that have made our country what it is today."

Vice President Alben W. Barkley, whose 74 years may not stop him from becoming a formidable candidate for the presidential nomination, echoed the President's demand that the party stand on its record in office.

Reciting what he said were gains made by farmers, labor, business and the aged and unemployed, Barkley said the Democratic party has "earned the confidence of the American people."

Truman's message, apparently written well before he went to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington for a checkup after his tussle with a virus infection, exploded a new bomb under efforts of National Chairman Frank McKinney and others to compromise a civil rights plank in the party platform.

And it threatened further complications in the contest over the seating of rival delegations from Texas. One of these, headed by Gov. Allan Shivers, is definitely anti - administration. The other, headed by former Rep. Maury Maverick, is tabbed as a "loyalist" group.

Truman's call for "bold and resolute" action was interpreted here as reaffirming his stand that the party must not compromise on the civil rights issue.

Garage Theft Reported

LISBON—Harry Bricker, agent for the Y & S Car Shop at Negley reported to Sheriff Howard J. Clark's office Wednesday that a cutting torch was stolen from the garage sometime Tuesday or early Wednesday morning. The torch equipment was valued at about $200.

WOMAN FOUND IN RIVER

LORAIN, O. (AP)—Police Wednesday recovered the body of Mrs. Agnes Moger, 28, from Black River in South Lorain. Police Inspector Maurice Mumford said the woman had been despondent lately over the assignment of her husband, Navy Lt. Frank Moger, to the European theater of operations.

Southern Natural Gas Jumps Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—A sharp jump ahead by Southern Natural Gas today enlivened an otherwise quiet and slightly drooopy stock market.

The utility advanced as much as five points at around 60 following a proposal for a two-for- one split doubled with a dividend declaration of 70 cents as against 62½ cents previously paid quarterly.

The key groups of steels, motors and railroad were unchanged to around a point lower.

Throughout the remainder of the list prices ranged over a spread of around a point either way.

Trading was at a rate of around a million shares a day.

Lower prices were paid for Republic Steel, Chrysler, Northern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Anaconda Copper, Dow Chemical, and United Aircraft. Higher were Homestake Mining, International Paper, Aluminum Co. of America, and Sears Roebuck.

Flying Saucers Again Sighted Over State

DAYTON, O. (AP)—Those elusive flying saucers are back in Ohio again.

Roy T. Ellis of Dayton, president of the Rubber Steel Products Co., said he saw what he guessed to be a flying saucer over Dayton at 12:35 a. m. EST., Sunday.

He described it as almost like an ice cream cone with an ellipitical dark object in the center where the ice cream would rest in the cone.

Ellis said "the object was as wide as a full moon with a white light about as brilliant as the full moon."

Ellis, an amateur astronomer, said he was looking for comets when he saw the "saucer."

CIRCUS PRESS AGENT DEAD

SPRINGFIELD, O. (AP)—Funeral service for "Doc" Waddell, 88, circus evangelist and dean of old-time circus press agents who died Tuesday in Columbus, will be held here at 1:30 p. m. Saturday. Burial will be in Ferncliff Cemetery.

The trumpeter swan is believed to have been saved from extinction when a flock of 76 was found in Montana after the bird was believed to be extinct and a refuge was established for them in 1935.

Mossadegh Quits As Iran Premier

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, archpriest of Iranian nationalism, resigned today and Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi asked the lower house of Parliament to choose a new government head.

The 72-year-old Premier's resignation was believed due to Parliament's failure to vote him powers to govern absolutely by decree for six months. He had said this was necessary to solve Iran's acute economic crisis.

Mossadegh's resignation was reported unofficially earlier today and later confirmed by an official of the lower house (Majlis), who said it was announced at a closed session of Parliament today by Court Minister Hussein Ala.

Mossadegh, himself, was reported at his home "sick in bed."

Brain Specialist Dies In Canton Hospital

CANTON, O. (AP) — Funeral services will be Saturday for Dr. John D. O'Brien, a leader in the field of nervous and mental diseases and chairman of the medical board at Canton Mercy Hospital. He died Wednesday at 71.

Dr. O'Brien gained international acclaim in 1931 when he reported the first successful removal of the right hemisphere of a woman's brain.

For many years he was chairman of the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene. He came to Stark County in 1905 as pathologist and assistant physician at Massillon Hospital moving here in 1913.

Two Autos Collide

Paul E. Sankbeil of 1129 E. State St. reported to police that at 9:20 a.m. today as he was driving south on Woodland Ave. his car collided with an auto, operated by Morris Hartman of RD 2, Salem, which failed to stop for the stop sign on E. Pershing St.

Considerable damage was caused to each car.

BLIND "SKYWATCHERS"

SPRINGFIELD, O. (AP) — Blind citizens of Springfield have volunteered for duty to the local "Operation Skywatch." "I thought we could do our part by teaming up with fellows who can see," said Oscar E. Green, a blind man. "We'll borrow their eyes," he added, "and lend them our ears. That should work out well."

COW RETRIEVED FROM WELL

ASHTABULA, O. (AP) — A Jersey cow fell backwards into a 34-foot well half filled with water at nearby Austinburg. Firemen filled the well with water and floated the cow to the top, and she was lifted to the ground. Six hours later and none the worse for her wetting, the cow gave her regular two gallons of milk to her owner, H. G. Woods.

Lisbon Grangers Map Program For Friday

LISBON—A safety contest finals for District 4 will be held Friday night at the meeting of the Lisbon Grange at the Grange Hall.

Miss Helen Siefke, chairman, said youngsters from Center, Elkrun, Franklin, Wayne, Madison and Washington Townships will give their essays at the meeting. The winner will be eligible for the county finals set for Wednesday night at the Lisbon Grange.

The county winner will advance to the state district finals Aug. 6 at Ravenna.

The grange also announced a sewing and cookie contest will be held at the Aug. 15 meeting. A 50th anniversary celebration will be held at the Aug. 1 meeting.

Clarence Crosser is master and Mrs. Hazel Lambert, lecturer.

Giant clams can attain a length of over three feet.

CANTON BANS CARNIVALS

CANTON, O. (AP)—Canton Mayor Carl Wise visited a carnival at the Stark County Fairgrounds Tuesday night, then placed a ban on carnivals. "The carnival had about every kind of gambling device you could think of," the mayor snorted. 'As far as I am concerned, no more carnivals are going to be permitted in Canton."

The first kindergarten was set up in 1837.

Roving Reports By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody loves a parade, but the one I like best to watch is the one out of the office at quitting time each day.

It is then the human parade looks most human. And you can tell something about each inmate by the way he starts the long voyage home.

The average worker will recognize at least some of the following standard office types:

1. The clock watcher — This reluctant beaver has developed a size 18 neck from raising his head to study the clock. When it hits 5:30 he is off like a springing deer. He couldn't get out of the place faster if someone hollered "Fire!"

2. The two hoary philosophers—One gets up and says, "another day, another dollar." And the other climbs to his feet and says, "Yeah, a million days — a million dollars." They have been saying this every day for 37 years, and neither has four bits in the bank.

3. The worried suburbanite — He hauls out a timetable and starts muttering, "If I stop off and have one for the road I can catch the 6:03 train. If I have two, I can snag the 6:21. If I have three, lemme see now, I can—"

4. The fiddle-faddler — He has been trying to look busy all day without doing anything. Finally he quickly shoves a mass of papers in a drawer, and announces loudly, "Boy, what a workout this has been! Finally got my desk clean, though." But the only guy he's got fooled is the janitor.

5. The beat - the - gun artist—At 5:20 he gets up as if to go to the water cooler. Then he swiftly sidles out the door, and runs down the fire exit so no one will see him catching the elevator.

6. The day dreamer — He sits there with glazed eyes until someone kindly shakes him and says, "Wake up, Homer, the ordeal is over."

7. The femme fatale stenographer—She has a heavy date, and since 2:30 she's been in the ladies room primping and putting on her cocktail party dress. When she emerges, a cloud of scent trails her, and for the next three days the filing cabinets smell like a catalog of French perfumes.

8. The office wolf — He sees the stenographer, arises like a mesmerized puppy, and follows her out, hoping to ambush her in the elevator.

9. The boss — He comes out of his sanctum at 5:38, looks up at the clock in smug virtue, then shakes his head tiredly with an air of executive sacrifice.

10. The ambitious vassal — He closes his desk drawer with a loud bang, then races out in time to say breathlessly, "Gee, boss you're working late — again." What he means by this, of course, is, "look at me, boss, I worked late, too. You can count on good old loyal me everytime, boss."

Well, there they are — the office pilgrims. Just getting out of the office each night takes them more real acting ability and energy than John Barrymore ever put into "Hamlet."

No wonder the tired businessman arrives home so worn out.

Noodles, Spaghetti; Potato Standins

Noodles and spaghetti do a right smart job as stand-ins for potatoes. Here's evidence you can enjoy:

Mexican Veal Steak with Noodles

One-quarter cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, freshly-ground pepper, 1 pound veal, sliced thin, 3 tablespoons shortening, 1 large onion, sliced, 1-3 cup chili sauce, 1½ cups boiling water, ¼ cup grated processed American cheese, 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces egg noodles (about 4 cups).

Mix flour, 1 teaspoon salt and pepper and pound into meat with edge of a sturdy saucer until meat is flattened. Cut meat into 4 pieces. In a large skillet, melt shortening over medium heat. Add onion and veal; saute until brown. Stir in chili sauce and 1½ cups boiling water.

Cover and cook over low heat ½ hour, or until veal is tender. Sprinkle with cheese and stir until melted. Serve with cooked noodles. To cook noodles, add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook, uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Savory Goulash on Noodles

One-quarter pound diced salt pork, 1½ pounds lean beef, cut in 1-inch cubes, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 clove garlic, chopped, ½ cup chopped onion, 1 cup beef bouillon, 2 cups tomato juice, 6 peppercorns, bruised, 3 whole cloves, ¼ cup chopped parsley, ½ bay leaf, 4-6 medium-sized carrots, quartered, 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ cup water, 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces egg noodles (about 4 cups).

In a large skillet, fry salt pork until crisp, over medium heat. Add beef and brown quickly. Add 2 teaspoons salt, garlic, onion, bouillon, tomato juice, peppercorns, cloves, parsley and bay leaf. Cover and cook over low heat about one hour, or until beef is tender.

Add carrots the last 20 minutes of cooking time. Blend flour and ¼ cup water together. Gradually stir into cooked beef mixture; continue cooking until thickened, stirring constantly. Serve over cooked noodles.

It's Salad Time

It's salad time..come spring and summer the perennial urge pops up for something new and out of the ordinary, especially in daily menus. What better answer than tangy, crisp, tantalizing salads—light yet satisfying, colorful, cool eating and simple to prepare.

As pretty as a picture is this sauffed tomato rosette, made with creamy cottage cheese, cucumber and dried beef.

STUFFED TOMATO ROSETTES

1 large cucumber
2 cups cottage cheese
1-3 cup sour cream
2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
1 cup finely chopped dried beef
Salt and pepper
4 to 6 medium-sized tomatoes
Lettuce

Chop enough cucumber to make ½ cup. Slice remaining cucumber for garnishing. Mix cottage cheese sour cream, onion, chopped cucumber and dried beef gently. Season with salt and pepper.

Wash or peel tomatoes; remove stem ends. Cut into six sections, leaving base uncut. Spread open slightly. Place on lettuce. Fill with with sliced cucumber. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Sardines Perfect For Canapes

Norwegian sardines can be served as is right out of the can, in sandwiches, in hot dishhes and cold salads. They come packed in olive oil (the kind we like best) or in natural fish oil. Before being packed the tender whole sardines are lightly smoked over slow-burning oak wood fires.

We went to a sardine-tasting party recently. On a large table was an amazing assortment of snacks made with these little delicacies from Norway. Here are a few:

Diagonally cut strips of buttered pumpernickel spread with minced lobster and mayonnaise, topped with a sprig of parsley and a small slice of lemon.

Hard-boiled eggs, stuffed with the yolk mixed with piccalilli and mayonnaise, topped with sardines, and decorated with a criss-cross of ribboned red pimento.

Pumpeickle circles topped with a slice of hard-boiled egg and sardines, and decorated with red caviar and parsley.

Hard-boiled eggs stuffed with chopped lobster, mixed with egg yolk and mayonnaise, surmounted by a sardine and decorated with a small sprig of fresh parsley and fresh lemon slice cut in a triangular point.

Hard-boiled eggs, stuffed with yolks mixed with piccalilli and mayonnaise, topped with a sardine, and decorated with fresh caviar and red caviar.

MAKE YOUR SUNDAE

New ice cream sundae idea: Stir three-quarters cup chocolate sauce into a quarter cup of chunk-style peanut butter and serve over a quart of vanilla or chocolate ice cream. If the chocolate sauce peanut butter mixture is too thick thin with a little corn syrup or honey.

SAVE GLASS

Always put food, fat, or water into a glass utensil before heating it—don't pour liquid into a hot, dry pan. Before putting a glass utensil over direct heat, be careful to have the outside dry. Always set a hot pan on a dry surface and use dry pot holders.

Save By Planning Meals Ahead

In hot weather you'll find it a lot easier to prepare meals if you plan days in advance what to serve each night. Then you can cut down trips to the markets, prepare certain foods in advance during the cooler hours of the day, and avoid last-minute confusion over the night's menu. Also, you will save money and avoid waste this way.

To help you plan menus in advance, here are some budget dinner menus that are well-balanced, pleasing and on the inexpensive side.

Chicken in green pepper with cheese sauce on English muffins, steamed spinach, pickled beet salad, muffins and butter or margarine, fresh fruit plate, coffee, tea and milk.

Raspberry and grapefruit cup, pan-fried flounder with tomato and pickle garnish, spinach ring with rice, bread, butter or margarine, peach pie, coffee, milk.

Rolled neck of veal, mashed potatoes, French-style green beans, sliced tomatoes and lettuce, biscuits, butter or margarine, rhubarb pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

Broiled chicken, buttered noodles, pea timbals with white sauce, prune and cheese salad, crisp Vienna bread, butter or margarine, raspberry sherbet, coffee, milk.

Potted chuck steak, brown potatoes, whole onions, whole carrots, cole slaw, whole wheat bread, butter or margarine, peach tapioca pudding, coffee, milk.

Boiled smoked tongue, corn and lima beans, creamed dandelion greens, bread and butter pickles, bread, butter or margarine, scalloped rhubarb, coffee, milk.

Serve tomato aspic with salad greens and asparagus tips for a delicious luncheon salad.

YELLOW AND WHITE CORNBREAD

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup yellow corn meal
½ cup white corn meal
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups buttermilk
1 egg

Set oven at very hot (475F.) Put butter or margarine in 9-inch square baking pan in oven until just melted; remove and set aside Into mixing bowl sift yellow and white corn meal, flour, baking soda, and salt.

Add buttermilk, egg, and butter from baking pan. Beat with rotary beater until just combined. Pour into pan in which butter was melted and bake in very hot (475F.) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until lightly browned on top. Cut into squares and serve at once.

HASTY CHILI

1 pound ground beef
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 small onions, chopped
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes
1 No. 2 can kidney beans
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons chili powder
⅛ teaspoon cayenne pepper

Brown the beef slowly in lard or drippings. Add onions, tomatoes, beans and seasonings. Cook slowly for 1 hour. Water may be added if desired and the seasonings can be adjusted to taste. 4 to 6 servings.

GARNISH FOR SALAD

Salads look pretty when garnished with radishes. Clean the radishes and remove a thin slice from each end; slice the radishes very thinly crosswise to about an eighth of an inch of the other side. Chill these cut radishes in ice water for a short time so the cuts will separate slightly and give a spiral effect.

CARROTS WITH CELERY

2 cups diced carrots
1 cup diced celery
¾ cup boiling water,
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Freshly-ground pepper (to taste)

Put carrots and celery in medium-sized sauce pan; add water and salt. Bring quickly to a boil; cover saucepan, reduce heat, but keep boiling actively until tender—8 to 10 minutes. Drain off small amount of remaining liquid in saucepan. Stir butter into vegetables until melted and add pepper. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

SLICED TOMATO COLONY

Slice the chilled tomatoes very thin. It will be better if they have been peeled before placing in the refrigerator. Spread out on crisped romaine leaves. Sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve with olive oil and wine vinegar, letting your guests help themselves to these.

For Outdoor Eating

When vacation days drag for the youngsters, and hot weather indoor cooking drags for Mother, there's nothing like a warm outdoor meal in woods or roadside park or on the beach.

However, mothers don't relish building open fires, nor cooking cover them. Furthermore, in many places they couldn't build fires if they wanted to, because of safety regulations.

But here's a simple way to fix hot nourishing food out of doors—just fill up a casserole with any one of a whole variety of complete-in-one-dish recipes and cook right on the picnic table with a table-top stove.

These table-top stoves are the civilian cousin of the Coleman pocket stoves almost every G.I. used in the war. They make their own gas from liquid fuel, light instantly and can be regulated just like the burner of a gas range.

Small enough to tuck away in a spare corner of the car trunk, they burn four to five hours with one filling of fuel. They boil a pint of water in little more than two minutes.

Casseroles may be started in the oven at home and then heated up at the picnic spot, or entirely cooked outdoors. Glass casseroles must be heatproof, however.

A good, substantial picnic standby is frankfurters and baked peans. But there's a big variety of wholesome recipes from which to choose.

Here's a tuna fish and noodle dish everyone in the family will like. It's easy to fix for that outdoor meal:

Tuna Fish and Noodles With Mushroom Cream Sauce

1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon butter of margarine
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1-3 to ½ cup milk
17-ounce can tuna fish
2 cups cooked noodles
¾ cup crushed potato chips

Cook onion in butter until soft; stir cream of mushroom soup, milk and onion together. Break tuna into chunks; mix lightly with soup mixture and noodles. Place in greased 1½-quart casserole. Tpp with potato chips. Peas and olives may be added, if desired.

For home use, bake at 350 degrees F. (moderate oven) for 20-30 minutes. For picnics, either bake at home and heat up at picnic, or cook on table-top burner. 5 servings.

FOR CURLING CELERY

To make celery curls, cut the cleaned stalks in two-inch pieces; make four or five parallel cuts at each end for one-third the length of the pieces. Chill in ice water for at least an hour to allow the cut ends of the celery pieces to curl.

HAM, CARROT ROLLS

Cut carrots into long, thin strips and cook, then roll in "boiled" ham slices. Fasten with wooden picks and thoroughly heat in a moderate oven.

Try Variations On Hamburg

Here's a variation on the ever-popular all-American hamburger—spark it with plum horseradish sauce.

Plum Horseradish Sauce

1 cup homemade plum jam
2 tablespoons horseradish

Stir jam until softened. Add horseradish and blend. Serve on hamburgers sizzling hot from the open fire.

Note: Increase horseradish if "hotter" sauce is desired.

And this is the recipe for homemade plum jam, the spread that is always perfect with meat.

Plum Jam

(About 14 medium glasses)

Six cups prepared fruit, 8 cups sugar, 1 box powdered fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, pit (do not peel) about 4 pounds fully ripe plums, Chop fine. Add ½ cup water; bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 5 minutes. Measure 6 cups fruit into a large saucepan.

To make the jam, measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ⅛-inch hot paraffin.

SAUSAGE, BEAN CASSEROLE

Top a casserole combination of kidney beans and tomatoes with little browned sausage links. Season with a bit of chopped onion and cook covered in a moderate oven for 20 to 30 minutes.

AID TO PANS

To avoid damage to saucepans from boiling dry or burning, use low hear—as long as food is boiling, you can't hurry the cooking by increasing the heat. If a pan does burn, be sure to let it cool until you can hold your hand on it before you put water into it, or put it in water. If coused with water when hot, metal is likely to warp, enameledware to chip, glassware or cast metal to break. Let a burned pan soak for half an hour or so, then loosen stuck-on food with a wooden spoon.

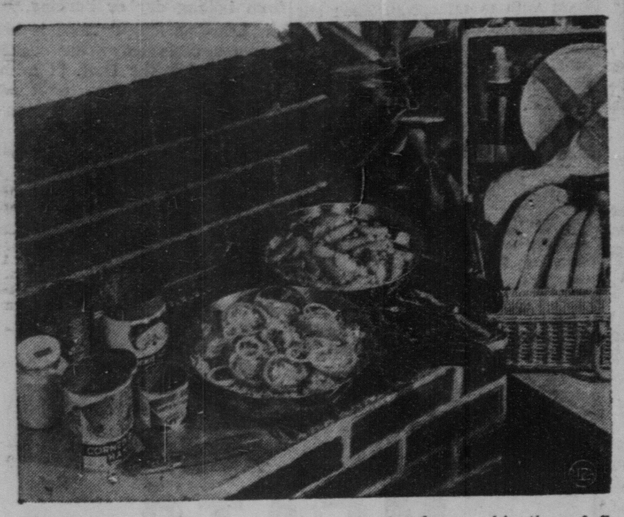
Take Canned Foods On Picnic



No longer must Mother get up hours before the family to prepare the picnic meal. Now she finds many picnic ingredients neatly packed in cans and no worry about packing them safely.

Fresh air appetites are always sharp, so plan one or two hearty main dishes. Canned corned beef hash is one favorite. To serve, just heat it in a skillet with slices of tomato, onion and green pepper.

Another delicious main dish is made from three canned products —one can of baked beans, one of sliced apples and two of Vienna sausage. Many are the varieties of canned meats which today offer a spectacular combination of flavor, nutrition, economy and convenience. For picnics, they are tops.

There are ham and liver spreads for easy sandwich makings, there are canned hamburgers and frankfurters which eliminate the hazard of carrying fresh meat in hot weather. Be sure to take along an efficient can opener.

A good tip in the beverage department is to fill your themos with crushed ice and take your chilled canned or bottled beverages along separately. To serve, pour drinks over ice from thermos.

If you like cake for dessert but don't want to be concerned with packing to keep the frosting intact, make cupcakes, split them in the middle and frost the inside.

When it comes to fruits, bananas are easy to carry on an outing. So are apples.

Corned Beef Skillet Dinner.

2 1-pound cans corned beef hash
2 tomatoes
1 medium onion
1 green pepper, coarsely cut
Salt, pepper

Turn corned beef hash into skillet or saucepan. Slice tomatoes and onion over top; add green pepper. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; heat to serving temperature. 4 servings.

Vienna Sausage Picnic Skillet

1 1-pound can baked beans
1 No. 2 can apple slices
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
2 4-ounce cans Vienna sausage

Combine baked beans, apple slices, mustard and Vienna sausage. Heat to serving temperature. 4 servings.

EGG, TUNA AND PICKLE SANDWICHES

3 hard-cooked eggs
1 7-ounce can tuna
1-3 cup mayonnaise
¼ cup drained sweet cucumber pickles (finely chopped)
Salt and pepper (to taste)
12 slices bread.

Shell eggs and put in mixing bowl; chop coarsely. Discard oil from tuna. Add tuna to eggs and flake with fork. Mix in mayonnaise, pickles, salt, and pepper. Use as filling for 6 sandwiches.

There are many species of kangaroo on New Guninea, but none are larger than fox terriers.
